

OBITUARY

Patricia Gail King, a beloved mother, grandmother, and sister, left this world on February 6, 2025, in Quinlan, Texas, at the age of 80.

Born on January 30, 1945, in Waxahachie, Texas, Patricia was a vibrant spirit who dedicated her life to hard work and family, forever leaving a warm imprint on the hearts of those who knew her.

Employed at Walmart, Patricia embraced her role with unwavering dedication. Her commitment to her career was matched only by her love for her family. Those closest to her remember her as a feisty and strong-willed individual, always ready to express her thoughts and make her mark on the world around her.

Patricia found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved to shop, often delighting in the thrill of finding the perfect gift for her loved ones. However, her greatest joy came from spoiling her cherished grandchildren: Tyler King, Fernando Noel Rios, and Alyssa Garcia, as well as her great-granddaughter, Scarlett King. She treasured the moments spent with them, creating memories that will surely be passed down for generations.

Her family, including her daughter Amanda Rios (spouse - Johnny) and son Justin King (spouse - Susan), remember her not only as a matriarch but as a source of unwavering support and affection. Her legacy is embodied in the love she shared and the lives she touched; she will be greatly missed by all. Patricia is also mourned by her sister Brenda Roberts (spouse - Mike), who will carry the memories of their shared laughter and poignant moments.

She is welcomed into eternal peace by her beloved family members who preceded her in death: her beloved husband James King, father William Daniel, her mother Viola Jenkins Daniel, her son Richard Robbins, her sister Sheila Barnhill, and her brothers Patrick Daniel and James Daniel. Together, they will be remembered and celebrated as they reunite in the embrace of everlasting love.

Patricia Gail King leaves behind a legacy filled with love, strength, and cherished memories. Though she may be gone from our sight, her spirit will forever shine in the hearts of her family and friends.

IF YOU EVER DREAM,
I LOVE YOU

I've had so many dreams sweetheart,
most of them of you
Some of them are happy dreams,
some of them are blue

There are so many kinds of dreams, I dream of you Dreams that say I love you mean more than others do.

I don't know the truth in dreams
some of them seem real

If there is no truth in dreams, it's plain the way I feel

I guess you've had many dreams, but ones of me are few

If you ever dream, I love you,
I know it will come true.

The countless dreams I've had of you, make me realize

Your love for me begins each night,
when I close my eyes

Sometimes when you're fast asleep
with nothing else to do

Why not dream, I love you, I know it will come true

I don't know the truth in dreams,
some of them seem real

If there is no truth in dreams, it's plain the way I feel

Sometimes when you're fast asleep
with nothing more to do.

Why not dream I love you, I know it will come true.
