

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

“God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flowers strewn pathway all our lives through.
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer; light for the way,
Grace for the trails, help from above,
Unfailing symphony, undying love.”

Obituary

Samuel Fitzpatrick, 70, of Neptune, NJ passed away suddenly on February 29, 2020 at Neptune Gardens Care Center, Neptune, NJ. Samuel was born on May 16, 1949 to the late Sam and Lerena Fitzpatrick, the youngest of seven children born in Fort Davis, Alabama.

He moved to New Jersey at a young age and attended Millstone Township, NJ Schools. He later met Dora, and they had three children. Samuel had a great love for Harley-Davidson motorcycles. You could always find him riding or cleaning his bike. Samuel worked in construction and did various jobs. He later became a self-employed mechanic and continued to work until he became ill in 2016.

He was predeceased by his parents, Sam and Lerena Fitzpatrick; five brothers, Needham, Sr, Fuller, John, James and Charles; one sister, Johnnie Mae Drummer.

He is survived by his two daughters, Crystal and Kawana Fitzpatrick of Neptune, NJ; one son, Quaddeer Fitzpatrick of Neptune, NJ; Ebony Ramey whom he helped raise as one of his own children; sister-in-law, Sylvia Fitzpatrick; eight grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and his best friend, Dora, and mother of his children.
