"God Took Her to His Loving Home"

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be. He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered, "COME WITH ME MY CHILD" She suffered much in silence; her Spirit did not Bend. She tried so hard to stay courage, until the very End. She tried so hard to stay with us, but her fight was not in vain, God took her to his loving home and freed her from pain.

Her Legacy...

On Monday, November 10, 2025 the royal carpet has been laid out, and the trumpets began to sound. The angels begin to rejoice for another soldier was on her way home.

The early morning train has made it stop at the house of Sis. Constance Yvette Porter "KANDY" in Jacksonville, Florida. All Aboard Servants of God, All Aboard thy weary Soldier, All Aboard God's Chosen Vessel, this is the Glory Bound Express, to Heaven. Only ticketed Passengers can Board. With her ticket in hand, her eyes fix on Glory, Her mind steadfast on Jesus. She Boarded the train saying, "There is my Rainbow" and singing "I'm going with Jesus on the other side"

Constance was the beloved daughter of Dea. Roderick and Sis. Irish Bush. She attended the local schools and graduated from Andrew Jackson Senior High. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at Unity Church 3:16 under the leadership of Bruce T. Hickson, Pastor & Founder.
