

Caron Lynn Katko

November 27, 1942 - August 3, 2018

Caron Lynn Katko passed away on Friday, August 3, 2018 in Albany, Oregon.

Caron was born and raised in New York City and eventually made her way to the West coast, marrying the love of her life, Albert Katko in San Diego, California before settling in Corvallis in 1972 to raise their three children. Family was always important to her. She loved being surrounded by her children and grandchildren. In particular, she reveled spoiling her grandchildren and dog, Shiloh.

Caron was an active member in Saint Mary's Catholic Church, knitting prayer shawls with her group of friends. She enjoyed quilting, gardening, spending time with friends, and was a voracious reader of mysteries and American history.

Caron is preceded in death by her husband, Albert. She is survived by her sister, Phyllis Giles, and brother, Richard Rowley, daughter Denise (Loren); son Keith (Christina); son Steve (Gretchen) and grandchildren Nicholas and Natalie.

Forever in our hearts and so loved she will be missed dearly.

A Rosary will be held at 10:30 a.m., followed by Mass at 11:00 a.m., Monday, August 13, 2018, at Saint Mary's Catholic Church in Albany.

In Loving Memory of

Caron L. Katko

November 27, 1942 ~ August 3, 2018

Mothers are Wonderful
Mothers should know everything,
Like just how high is “up”,
How to kiss away a hurt
Or how to wash a pup!

Mothers should know everything,
Like how to mend old toys,
And how to tell a story
That delights small girls and boys.

Mothers should know everything,
Like how to fly a kite,
What makes a budding flower bloom.
Why stars come out at night.

Mothers should know everything,
(Even why the sky is blue)
Yes, mothers should know everything,
And the wonder is they do.
