What Makes A Grandmother Special?

What makes a Grandmother special?
Why is she so dear?
When we think about our Grandma
The reasons are quite clear

Our Grandma loved us dearly
We could see it every time
We came to visit Grandma
By the way her eyes would shine

And we could tell that she was happy
When we were with her
She'd laugh and play and hug us
These sweet memories will endure!

Now Grandma was known to spoil us
For she knew just what we liked
She paid attention to the things we'd say
And helped our dreams take flight

She always listened closely
Had such a tender, loving gaze
Doted on us with her smiles and hugs
And her kind and thoughtful ways

So what made our Grandma special?
So special she stood apart?
It's that she showered our lives with such deep love
That she'll live forever in our hearts

Delores Kaye “Fallis” Crowe was born February 2, 1956, in Pierre, South Dakota to Cleveland Fallis and Ethel “Little Eagle” Fallis.

Delores grew up in the areas of Pierre, Big Bend, and Fort Thompson, South Dakota. She attended the Immaculate Conception High School in Stephan, South Dakota, later earning her GED. She also took classes for office administration and worked various jobs throughout her life, including a teacher’s aide at the old Crow Creek Elementary School with her favorite being a cook at the Crow Creek Tribal School. Delores was known for her cooking and excellent baking skills. She married early in life with that union blessing her with three children. Delores later met and married the love of her life, Virgil, and spent thirty glorious years with him. She loved going to BINGO, being with her fur babies, and of course taking care of her family.

Delores entered the spirit world May 27, 2025, at the age of 69. Gratefully sharing her life was her “Hunny,” Virgil Crowe; siblings, Linda Fallis, and Robert “Bob” Fallis (Nikki Fallis); her children, Robert Heth, Keith Heth, Jr. (Karlene Heth), and Kimmy Heth; Rory Crowe and Jason Crowe; Hunka son, Eric Big Eagle; her grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom she loved with all her heart; and many friends and family too numerous to name.

Preceding her in death were her parents, Cleveland and Ethel Fallis; sister, Yvonne “Bonnie” Drappeaux; brothers, Cleveland “Chuck” Fallis, Jr., and Douglas Fallis; nieces, Francine, Dawn, and Marianne Drappeaux; nephews, Sonny and Marvin “Junior” Drappeaux, and Baby Jesse Fallis. She will be laid to rest at the Catholic cemetery in Stephan, SD beside her parents and brothers. Delores is loved and will be missed by all.
