

In Loving Memory

In loving Memory of our Wonderful Auntie
Of all the special gifts in life however great or small, to have you as our Auntie was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear
"We love and miss you Auntie and wish that you were here"

Deep in our hearts,
you're life is kept to love and cherish,
not forgot. No more tomorrows we can share but yesterdays
are always there.

A silent thought,
a secret tear keeps your memory ever near in our hearts forever.

Love, Danita & Lorenzo

Reflections of Her Life

"The Lord is my Shepard; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leads me beside the still waters. He restore to my soul. He leads me in the path of righteousness for

His name sake"

-Psalm 23

Ms. Savannah Sumter was born January 12, 1942, in Hopkins South Carolina to the late John B. and Rosa Anderson Sumter. She entered into eternal rest on Thursday December 25, 2025 at Lexington Community Hospice House- Agape Care. She was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, She retired from The University of South Carolina in 2007 after thirty one years of dedicated service.

Savannah was baptized at an early age and joined Zion Benevolent Baptist Church, in Hopkins South Carolina. She enjoyed dancing, joking, doing yard work and spending time with her family. Savannah affectionately called Aunt Daisey Mae or "The Ellison Annie" by family and friends touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Savannah had a sense of humor that would have everyone crying laughing for hours.

Savannah was proceeded in death by her parents, John B and Rosa Anderson Sumter, two brothers John Sumter and Robert Lee "Cadillac Daddy" Sumter, three sisters, Janie Mae Sumter Tucker, Annie Mae Sumter and Rosa Bell Sumter.

Savannah leaves to cherish her precious memory one brother George (Mattie Bell) Sumter, One sister Rebecca Sumter Brown, Devoted Great Niece Danita L. Sumter and Nephew Lorenzo T. Sumter all of Hopkins SC. A host of loving nieces, nephews and friends that will miss her dearly.
