

OBITUARY

Pat Seaton, a beloved member of her community, peacefully departed this life on August 24, 2025, in Saginaw, Texas. Born on July 30, 1938, in Cleburne, Texas, Pat lived a life marked by her passion for service and a child-like innocence that endeared her to many.

Throughout her life, Pat was known for her unwavering dedication to the safety and well-being of those around her. As a proud leader of the neighborhood watch group known as "Code Blue," she would often be seen wearing her vest and badge, a visual testament to her commitment to making her community a safer place. Her warm spirit was particularly cherished by children and babies, whom she loved dearly. Pat had a unique talent for ensuring that everyone felt cared for and secure, making her an integral part of the lives she touched.

She was preceded in death by her parents, "Buddy" and Irene Doty; her daughter, Paula Hennesay; and her brother, Rudy Doty.

Pat is survived by her daughter, Kay Garcia and her husband Robert; her son, Kevin Duke and his wife Lori; her daughter, Starla Travis and her husband Jason; and her son-in-law, Troy Hennesay; nine grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends who will miss her deeply.

Her warmth and fierce loyalty will be remembered fondly by all who knew her. Pat's spirit will continue to shine through the lives she has positively impacted, and she will be greatly missed.

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
