A Mother's Love

(From The Children)

A mother's love is essential.
A mother's love is unconditional.
A mother's love helps us grow and teaches us things that we need to know.
A mother's love is exceptional.
A mother's love is oh so special.
A mother's love cradles us whole, nourishes our mind, body, and soul.
A mother's love is unrelenting.
A mother's love is forgiving.
A mother's love teaches us right from wrong, is overprotective and shelters us from harm.
A mother's love is understanding.
A mother's love is everlasting.
A mother's love is God's gift to man, an extension of his all-knowing hand.
A mother's love soothes our pain.
A mother's love is pure as rain.
A mother's love is what we need, the building block to help us succeed.

Obituary

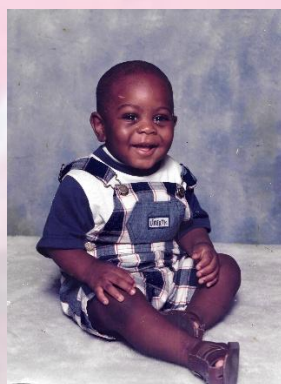

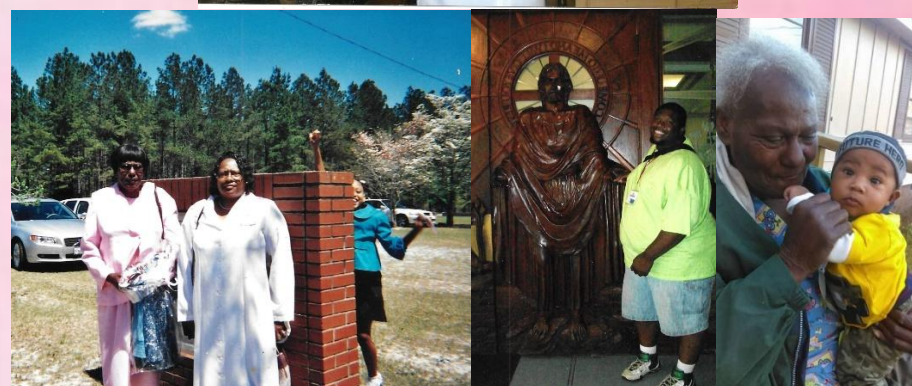

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. 2 Timothy 4:6-7

Ms. Callie Brinson peacefully transitioned from this life on Saturday, April 4, 2026, at the Smith Medical Nursing Center in Sandersville, Georgia. She was born on July 1, 1943, in Washington County, Georgia, to the late Lena Mae Walker and Willie B. Temple.

Ms. Brinson was a faithful and longtime member of Union Hill Baptist Church, where she worshipped until her health began to decline. She devoted 28 years of dedicated service to the Washington County Regional Medical Center before retiring.

In her leisure time, Callie enjoyed fishing, watching her favorite television stories, and following wrestling matches, with John Cena being her favorite wrestler. Above all else, she cherished her family and loved them unconditionally.

Ms. Callie Brinson leaves to cherish and honor her loving memory two children, Maxine (Roy) Latimer and Freddie Fleming, both of Sandersville, Georgia; four others whom she raised as her own: Mary Ann Brinson, Roderick Brinson, Demetriae (Keith) Reeves and Ashley Brinson, all of Sandersville, Georgia; one sister, Stella Walker of Tennille, Georgia; grandchildren, Jarvis Fleming, Stargell (Kristen) Jones, Kayla (Dylan) Brinson-Schwab, Kalvin Brinson, Olivia Brinson, and Kendrick Brinson; great-grandchildren, Gracien Schwab, Gracelynn Mae Schwab, Kai L. Jones, and Stella L. Jones; devoted cousins, Helen Taylor and Jimmy Brinson; along with a host of other relatives and friends.
