OBITUARY

Taurean Tayvon Harris died unexpectedly in his sleep on June 7, 2023, at home peacefully. He was born on July 15, 1983, in Baltimore, MD. The son of Alana Somerville and Steve Gladden.

Tayvon or Tazz as he was affectionately known by his family and friends grew up loving God and he attended Christian Community Baptist Church, under the leadership of Elder Melvin Green, where he was Baptized at an early age. He later served on the choir and the usher board. He attended Baltimore City Schools and received his high school diploma from Southwestern High School. After graduating from high school Tayvon attended TESST College and received his certification in Computer Technology.

Tayvon was so caring and loving, charismatic and exceptionally creative. In 2008 he decided to move to New York and pursue his dreams in fashion as a designer. Upon arriving in New York Tayvon immediately did what he needed to do to achieve his goals and dreams. He was a freelance designer, and he did his own thing in fashion design. He was also a brand ambassador for O Bobby Behave underwear line and ambassador for Charley Magazine. He was also a professional visual merchandiser and wardrobe stylist. He also joined the Big Bear Club where he was loved by many. He attended First Timothy Baptist Church where he was baptized again in 2018. In 2022 Tayvon received a Certificate of Recognition from the Mayor of Baltimore City, Brandon Scott for his ongoing commitment to our communities.

He also attended and graduated from Wood Tobe-Coburn School of Fashion in New York. His business, Touched by Tazz, was doing very well and he had several fashion shows in New York and Baltimore that were "fabulous!" He made friends wherever he went, and he will be missed by everyone.

He leaves to mourn, his mother Alana Somerville, Dwayne Somerville Sr., father Steve (Crystal), grandparents, Barbara and Eric Burrell, grandfather, James Gladden brothers, Dwayne, Charles and Donovan, sisters, Jamira and Krystal, many aunts and uncles, several cousins and his special friends, Tracie, Brown, Jonathan and Egypt.
