

I'm Free

I am free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand I heard him call
Then turned, and bid farewell to all

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace... at close of play

And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened... deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full I've savored much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with grief
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wants me now... He set me free.

Obituary

Quinton “Boo” Jackson, also known as “Boo Gotti,” passed away on March 28, 2026, at the age of 38. He was born on January 9, 1988, to the late Quinton D. Jackson Sr. and Angela McNeill. He received his G.E.D. while incarcerated. Quinton was a lifelong resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, where he built deep roots and lasting memories with family and friends.

Quinton was known as the life of the party, a man whose vibrant personality could light up an entire room. As the youngest of six siblings, he brought laughter, energy, and love wherever he went. He took pride in being neat, organized, and dependable, and he was a skilled handyman. Those who knew him will always remember how he carried himself with confidence—often recognized by the scent of his favorite colognes and his unforgettable presence.

He found joy in the simple pleasures of life, especially fishing, playing spades, cooking meals for loved ones, and spending time playing video games. Above all else, Quinton cherished his family and friends, and his greatest love was reserved for his children, who meant everything to him.

Quinton leaves behind a legacy of laughter, love, and unforgettable memories that will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. He will be deeply missed but forever remembered for his big heart, warm spirit, and the happiness he brought into the lives of others.

Quinton Jr. leaves to cherish his memory his children: Quenice, Kennedy, Quinnasia, Quinton III, and Angelo; his siblings: Tennia (Terry), Ron (Pam), Vanessa, Laquinta (Perrin Sr.), and Angel; and his step-siblings: DJ, Dolly, Booter, and Shannon; bonus siblings Alex and Kenno; along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, uncles, aunts, other relatives, and dear friends.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.
