

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up just say that I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle,
For it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but I did my best;
Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could,
not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos,
That's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve,
No extras, just my due.

Please don't give flowers or talk in harsh tones.
Don't be concerned about me now,
I'm well with God; I have made it home.

Don't talk about what could have been,
It's over and done.
Just see to all my family needs,
The battle has been won!

When you draw a picture of me,
don't draw me as a saint.
I've done some good, I've done some wrong....
So, use all of your paint.

Not just the bright and light tones,
Use some gray and dark;
In fact, don't put me down on canvas,
just paint me in your heart.

Don't just remember all the good times,
but also remember the bad;
For life is full of many things,
Some are happy and some sad.

But if you must do something, then I have one last request;
Forgive me for the wrongs I've done
and with the love that's left,
Thank God for my soul's resting.
Thank God for all who loved me,
Praise God who love me best.

Celebrating Our Beloved

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is quiet strength,
A steady hand, a guiding length.
In every step in all we do,
We carry pieces now of you.

Though you are gone from sight today,
Your love will never fade away.
In hearts you built with care so true,
Forever, we'll remember you.

Your loving children & grandchildren

Life Reflections

Kenyetta Glasgow, lovingly known by family and friends as a woman of faith, compassion, and unwavering love, entered eternal rest on Tuesday, June 2, 2026. She was born on November 18, 1973, in Brooklyn, New York to the late Thomas Glasgow and Evangelist Addie Holmes Brown.

Kenyetta originally attended Hillcrest High School in Dalzell, South Carolina. She relocated and attended Great Bridge High School in Chesapeake, Virginia where she graduated in 1992. She continued her studies after high school and attended Chris Logan School of Cosmetology in Sumter, South Carolina, further expanding her skills and creativity. She developed a love for sewing and baking. Throughout her life, she was dedicated to serving others and spent 25 years faithfully employed in the Food and Nutrition Department at Prisma Health Tuomey. Her strong work ethic, warm spirit, and caring nature touched the lives of countless coworkers and patients.

Above all else, she was a woman of faith who enjoyed praying, praising God, and spending precious time with her children and grandchildren. She loved watching good television shows, sharing laughter with family and friends, and brightening the lives of everyone she encountered. Her kindness, generosity, and loving heart left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Kenyetta was preceded in death by her parents, Thomas Glasgow and Evangelist Addie Holmes Brown; beloved daughter, Sharnay Moses; sister, Cheryl Glasgow; great-niece, Nianna Elise; great-grandparents, Bishop J. Monroe Clark, Vitamae Clark and Ruth Clark; grandparents, Miles and Charlotte Holmes, J. Glasgow and Ada Sharpton; aunts, Constance Thorne and Ruth Holmes.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her loving children: Shavonta (Travis) Scarborough, Christopher Cocklin Jr., and Shamyia Cocklin (Tyrik James) all of Sumter, South Carolina.

She was a devoted grandmother to Desire Barton, Zaylin Scarborough, Milan Barton, Za'Kahri Scarborough, Ashton Cocklin, and Sevynn James, each of whom brought immense joy to her life; siblings of New York and Virginia, Cherry Glasgow, Regina Claxton, Donovan Brown, Darlene Glasgow, Diane Glasgow, Nookie Glasgow, Tracey Glasgow, Thomas Glasgow Jr., and Alfonso Glasgow; aunts and uncles: Myra Holmes (godmother), Reverend Al Sharpton, Tina Glasgow, Alvin Holmes, Vanessa Barrett (Frank), Shari Holmes, and Angela Bowers; godfather, John Beckles Sr.; nieces and nephews, Iriha Terry, Isaiah Terry, Ilais Terry, Brianna Kearney, Starr Farrow, Maria, Alanna, Ilais Jr., Israel, and Jonathan; special sisters, Shirley Albert, Victoria House, Vertina Dinkins, Andrea Branch, and Johnna Lucas; a special friend, Jamaal Quattlebaum; and a host of extended family members, friends, coworkers, and loved ones whose lives were enriched by her presence.

Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy of faith, love, laughter, and service will continue to live on through the many lives she touched. Her family finds comfort in knowing that she is now resting peacefully in the presence of the Lord she faithfully loved and praised throughout her life.

"Well done, thy good and faithful servant." — Matthew 25:23
