Mary Roetta Clark, daughter of Milburn Roe & Stella May (Crain) Beal, was born on November 1, 1935 and departed this life on February 3, 2026. At the time of her passing, Roetta was ninety years, three months and two days of age.

On March 23, 1954 in Camdenton, Missouri, she was united in marriage to Kilmer Alford Clark and to this union one child was born. Together they shared fifty-six years of marriage until his passing in 2011.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Kilmer Clark; and her parents.

She is survived by her son, Mike & wife Kristi Clark; sister, Janet O'Neal; five grandchildren, Ashley & husband Porfirio Gonzalez, Leah & husband Michael McClellan, Hayden & wife Meredith French, Jared & wife Christin French, and Seth & wife Sarah French; and four great-grandchildren, Avery McClellan, Ariella Gonzalez, August French and Amaya Gonzalez. In her passing, Roetta also leaves behind many friends who will all truly miss her.

Roetta was born in Camdenton, Missouri, was a graduate of Camdenton High School but lived most of her life in Independence, Missouri. Throughout her working years, Roetta was a bank clerk for Bank of America, Analyst for Waddell & Reed, and was a homemaker in which she raised her family.

Roetta made a profession of Christian faith and was a member of Full Gospel Assembly in Independence, Missouri.

In her spare time, Roetta enjoyed crafts, reading and above all, attending church.

She was a loving mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother and a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and her accomplishments and will treasure the memories she created for her family and friends.
