

Brian “Chicky” Marshall was born on September 6, 1966, in Chicago, IL, to Douglas White Bull and Florence Marshall. Brian grew up in Kenel, SD, and attended school at Standing Rock High School in Fort Yates, ND. Brian then attended Job Corps in Clearfield, Utah. He joined the military and after his honorary discharge, Brian began working in the state of Washington. While there he worked for Icicle Sea Foods and processed fish from the Bering Sea. Brian then moved back to Kenel and worked for various construction companies. He also worked for Standing Rock TWEP, Elderly, Headstart and Tero. Brian was an all-around good guy that would help anyone who needed his expertise and had a good laugh for everyone he encountered. We sure will miss our kind-hearted, comedian most of the time and always joking manor.

Brian married Delina Baker in 1996, and have been married for 25 years. He enjoyed Rock N’ Roll music, dancing, and fishing.

Survived by his wife Delina, son, Brian Joseph Marshall, Jr., daughter, Marcie Linn Marshall, special granddaughter, Adysen Star, siblings, Marsha Marshall, Brandon Shults, Ricky Goben, Charlie Goben, Wilbur White Bull, Juliana Taken Alive, John White Bull, Jolene Cadotte, Maureen Marshall, Carol Marshall, Delray Demery, mother-in-law, Francine Hartley, aunts, Roberta Marshall Ramsey, Beana Martin, and Patty Kelly.

Preceded in death by his mother, Florence Marshall, son, Robert Joseph Marshall (RJ), maternal grandparents, Robert James Marshall and Marcella (Shooting Bear) Marshall, paternal grandparents, Jacob White Bull Sr. and Julia (Red Fish) White Bull.

Crossing Over

It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
My name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
"cross over," I'll be there.
To take your hand.
