MY DAD was the greatest + Dad
I ever had when he was sad he some how he made me happy so I love him very much I wish he came with us so he didn't die
CUZ I barely saw him and the reason I love him
so much is its my Cappan too Couse she love him very much
I like I do

Love you
Daddy

DANIEL MICHAEL GEORGE
COOK

December 25, 1992
November 26, 2022

Daniel Michael George Cook was born on Friday, December 25, 1992, in The Pas, Manitoba and he passed suddenly and unexpectedly on Saturday, November 26, 2022, at the Health Sciences Centre, Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the age of 29 years.

Daniel is survived by his mother Pamela Sanderson (Charles) Comeau; daughter Zoey Cook and Zoey's mom Beatrice; sister Desiree; nephew Carson; niece Phoenix; grandmother Jane Cook; aunts Loretta (Guy) Constant, Sonya Cook (Derrick), Flora (Doug) Comeau; cousins Nick Constant and his daughter Lilyanna, William (Morgan) Constant, Charles Constant and his girls Dahlia, Toni and Calliope, Bradley Constant, Joseph (Ashley) Comeau and their kids Darnell, Bijourn, SandiRose, Sandy (Alyx) Davis and their son Dougie, Kya Comeau, Douglas Comeau, Allison (Andrew), Ryan, Breanne (Devin), JP, John Cook along with their children, Tyson Head (Erin) and their daughters Adrianna, Aurora, Brandi Gunn; grandmothers Mary Greenleaf, Grace (Joe) Pelly; and many other relatives too numerous to mention.

Daniel was predeceased by Papa Walter Cook; uncles Mathew Cook, John Cook; and other numerous family members.

One of the most proudest days of Danny Boy's life was the day he became a dad. Zoey changed him a lot; more mature, responsible, yet didn't know the word "no" when Zoey asked for anything. He loved his princess as he would call her, to the fullest.

As a young boy, Danny would often get himself into a lot of situations where in the end he would always tell his grandparents, "It was an accident." Growing up on the reserve Danny tried a lot of different things whether it was going down river with Simon to serving student in the cafeteria and going to hockey games with his Papa.

His grandparents Walter and Jane Cook had a great part in raising Danny from the time he was born. With his grandma Jane keeping the promise to Walter to look after "baby" and make sure you get him everything he needs and not to let him go without. She will very much miss his smiling face and always carry him in her heart.

Daniel travelled a lot going to different places with his grandparents and meeting a lot of people along the way. He knew a lot about fixing things and figuring out the best way from how papa would have done it. He credited his papa for many things as he was being taught throughout his whole life. After his papa's passing, he never forgot the things he learned.

Daniel had a very good sense of humor and was raised by his mom. Joking around and a lot of music. He listened to all kinds of artist from country classics, dance to rap. He could sing along with Johnny Horton, Waylon Jennings, Queen to AC/DC and Eminem, C&C Music Factory to Elvis.

Danny boy was known to be very generous and respectful and at the same time over protective of those he loved the most.
