

"A Woman Like No Other"

She wasn't just a mother, a sister, a wife,
She was the quiet strength that carried life.
With hands that healed and arms that held,
With wisdom deep and love unparalleled.
Her beauty bloomed not just in face,
But in her kindness, her gentle grace.
She walked with faith, stood firm and true,
And gave her heart in all she'd do.
She rose with courage, stood with might,
Even when the road lost light.
Through every storm, she chose to care,
A giving soul, forever fair.
She loved without condition or end,
A constant guide, a lifelong friend.
She gave the world her tender light,
And made the dark feel warm and bright.
So now we honor all she's been
The love she gave, the lives she mended.
A queen in spirit, strong and kind,
A rarer soul, we'll never find.
Though she has gone, her light will stay,
In every memory, every day.
A beautiful woman, through and through
We thank God for the gift of you.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

Sallie Calhoun, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2025, at the age of 91. She was born on November 10, 1933, in Macon, Georgia, to the late Sally and Joseph Baskins.

Sallie was the heart and soul of her family a sweet, caring, and loving woman whose kindness and strength touched the lives of everyone around her. She had a passion for shopping and cherished spending time with her loved ones. Her nurturing spirit extended to every part of her life, from raising her children to lovingly caring for her grandchildren. She also worked as a dedicated housekeeper and was fondly known as "Nana" for her work with children, always bringing a warm and gentle presence wherever she went.

Sallie was married to Tommie Calhoun, and together, they built a life centered on love, family, and faith. A devoted member of New Prospect Baptist Church, her unwavering faith guided her every step and was the cornerstone of her daily life.

Her children Jr., Linda, and Shannon Calhoun were the focus of her love, and she poured herself into raising them with patience, care, and devotion. Sallie also lovingly helped raise her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, continuing to give the best of herself to those she held dear.

She will be deeply missed by her daughter, Linda; her grandchildren from her late son Jr. Antaricco, Simeon, Pooh, Dyvi, Noaw, Tekoah, and Tyrone; her grandchildren Deon and Octavia ; and her great-grandchildren Deasia, Raven, Areon, Deon, Koraan, and Greyson. She is also survived by her sister Dorothy Watkins' children—Pat, Teresa, and Vanessa Watkins—and her sister Betty's children—Felisha, David Johns, Tammy M., and Delena.

Sallie now rejoins in eternal rest her loving mother Sally, her dear sisters Dorothy and Betty, and her precious children, Jr. and Shannon Calhoun. Her memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of love, faith, and devotion will never be forgotten.

A Love That Endured:

Sallie & Tommie Calhoun
In a time when love stories were written in long conversations and deep commitments, Sallie and Tommie Calhoun began theirs in 1952 on Bay Street. It was there, on Bay Miller, that two souls met and something special began something that would last more than a lifetime.

Their love blossomed quickly, rooted in mutual respect, faith, and an undeniable bond. They married soon after, and for over 70 years, they stood by each other through every joy and every storm. Their union was a shining example of devotion anchored in prayer, built on trust, and filled with laughter, love, and family.

Together, Sallie and Tommie raised a beautiful family, instilling values of faith, kindness, and unity. Their home was filled with warmth and comfort a place where everyone was welcomed and cared for. Sallie was the gentle heart, always giving and nurturing. Tommie, her partner in every sense, was her strength and greatest support. Their marriage wasn't just a relationship it was a foundation for generations.

They were rarely seen apart. Whether it was going to church, family gatherings, or simply sitting side-by-side enjoying the day, Sallie and Tommie were one heart in two bodies. Their love inspired everyone who knew them, especially their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, who witnessed firsthand what true commitment looks like.

Even as Sallie transitions into eternal rest, the legacy of her and Tommie's love story will live on. It's in every hug shared between their grandchildren, in every Sunday church visit, in every meal eaten together as a family. It's a legacy of loyalty, joy, and deep, abiding love.

Their story reminds us that real love doesn't fade it grows stronger with time.
