Life Reflections

Lamont Long Sr. was born to the late John L. and Annie (Lowe) Long on August 7, 1959, at Martland Medical Center in Newark, NJ. After a brief illness, Lamont quietly passed away at home on February 8, 2022.

Lamont received his education in the Newark and Linden school systems and later took classes at World Impact Ministries.

After high school, Lamont joined his father, John L, his brother John (Eldridge) and cousin, David, at the General Motors Plant in Linden, NJ. He worked there for over 10 years until there was a lay off at the plant. He then began driving trucks and later became a driver for Uber.

In 1982, Lamont married Denise (Cookie) Winfield and on October 10, 1983, they welcomed a son, Lamont Jr.

Under the leading and teaching of Dr Iverson, Lamont accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior. Under Dr Iverson's ministry, Lamont served in the outreach ministry at Integrity House in Newark.

Lamont was a collector of comic books and loved to draw. Although Lamont was not the oldest child, he always acted like he was the protector of his siblings and his cousins. He would not let anyone take advantage of his family.

Lamont leaves to cherish his memories, his wife Denise, his son Lamont Jr., two grandchildren, Mi 'Asia Leach (15) and Jair Long (10), 5 siblings, Larry Batts (Nina) Clinton, MD, John (Nina) Tampa, FL, Gwendolyn Martin (Edward) Linden, NJ, Roderick (Kim) Rocky Mount, NC and adopted brother, Eddie Lewis (Felicia) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!
