Homegoing Celebration

Nena Tyra Friedman, 67 was led home to rest on Saturday, April 1, 2023.

Nena was born in Baltimore, MD to Dora Wooden and Henry Friedman Sr. in 1955. She was the aunt that didn't play but was a funny, loving and giving woman. She enjoyed spending time with her family, loved watching her game shows and playing cards.

Nena graduated from Baltimore City public school and started working at Medtaris Rehab facility where she was employed 30+ years.

She leaves to mourn her husband, Wayne Moseley, eight siblings, Sandra Friedman, Tyrone Friedman, Henry Friedman Jr., Lillian Jones (deceased), Vivian Floyd (deceased), Lewis James (deceased), Raymond James (deceased), Robert James (deceased), and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Always There

*When you remember me, Please do not weep
My body may not be there, It has chosen to sleep
I'm not that far away, My soul lives on Looking down, watching over, You and Everyone
And when you feel sad, And life seems so blue
Just remember, That my spirit has its arms around you
And on those special days, Times that you wish I could see
That cool breeze flowing past you, Well that will be me
So don't be sad, Have no fear
God has taken me under his wing, But I'll always be near
I still watch you, Every minute, every day
My love and soul are with you, and that's where they will stay.*

Love always, the family

Memories

This is about the heartache of losing my wife after 36 years of marriage. Although she left my life, her memory lives on in my heart.

The Way God Intended

I know that you've passed and your gone for good

It's hard to accept, but now I've understood

Nothing lasts forever, even if it's good or bad

Now you're up in heaven; it makes me feel glad

That finally your pain and sadness has ended

Just like the way God had intended

At this time, you're standing at those big golden gates

Up in heaven your new life awaits

I know your looking down on us, wanting us to be strong

And I know you have been all along

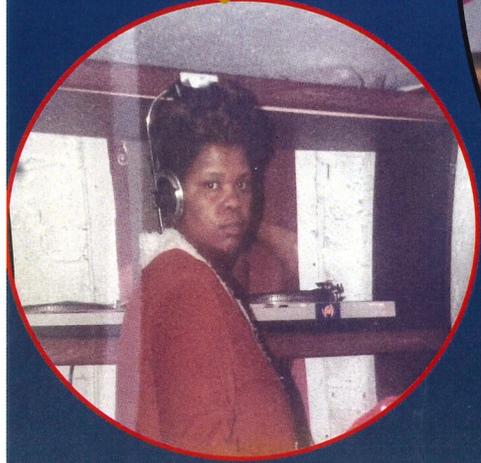

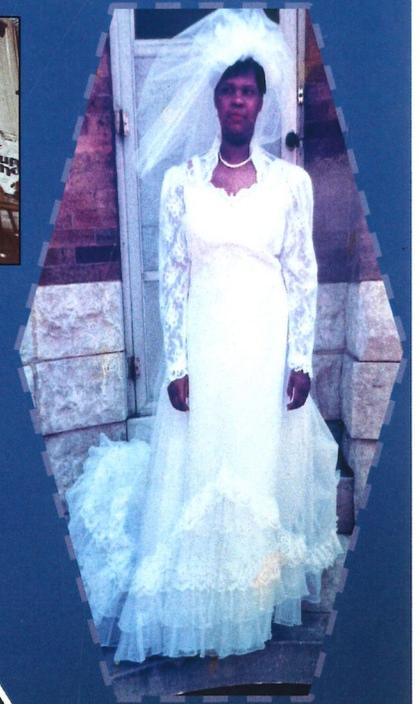

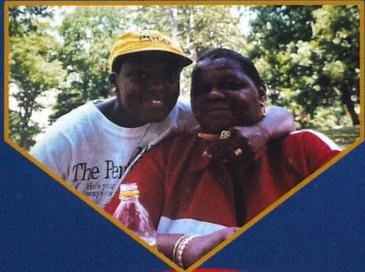

We all miss you and that's definitely true

When we think of all the times, we had with you

For now, You're up high in the sky

Because this is your time to say goodbye

Love always, Laverne Baldwin
