

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgement

Father in Heaven, we ask in the name of Jesus that you bless and prosper those who send cards, warm wishes, and prayers to our family during this time. We ask that you open up the windows of Heaven and pour them out a blessing that they have not room enough to store. We thank them, and most importantly, we thank you for placing them in our lives. Amen!

HIS JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

BY ELLEN BRENNAMAN

Obituary

Squire Leroy Nelson was born in Macon Georgia, on December 18, 1944, to the late Squire and Sylvia Nelson.

He was a very loving and giving person. He loved all of his grandchildren. Squire loved to go fishing several times a week. He was a conversationalist and lived life to the fullest. Some of his favorite topics, family, old movies/shows, and fishing.

Squire graduated from Withrow High School in 1964. He later went to attend CTC College with a focus on Culinary Arts, where he graduated in 1967.

Leroy as everyone called him, worked at General Motors for nineteen and a half years. He later went on to work at the First Unitarian Church of Cincinnati, doing Custodian for a number of years until he retired.

Squire was preceded in death by his parents, five siblings, Arthur, Larry, Phillip, Deborah, Janice, and his grandson Kevin Nelson.

He leaves to cherish his memory, four children (Candy) Heavenly Jean Nelson, (Red) Patricia Ann Nelson, (lilbit) Stacey Lynne (Kenneth) Rolley, and Avery Allen. Ten grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters, Jerome, Walter. Delores, Carol, and a host of family and friends.

Don't think of him as gone away
my journey's just begun, life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of me as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how I must be wishing that you could know today
how nothing but your sadness can really go away.

And think of me as living in the hearts of those I touched... for nothing loved is ever lost
and I was loved so much.
