Virgie Mae Burns

Virgie Mae Burns affectionately known as "Mae-Mae" was born July 11, 1943, to the late Walter and Artisha Burns.

Virgie completed some schooling but stop attending to find work to help support her younger siblings. Virgie worked many jobs in her life, one of which, she was the first female to work for The City of Yazoo in 1975. One of her jobs included serving as a janitor for Webster Elementary School in Yazoo City, MS.

Virgie was a baptized Jehovah's Witness for many years.

She departed her life on the early morning of September 2, 2022. Virgie is preceded in death by her parents: Walter and Artisha Burns; four brothers: Phillip Ellis, James Wilson, Albert Hillard and Johnny Burns, Sr.; one sister: Cora Burns; one daughter: Venus Burns; and one son: Calvin Burns.

Virgie leaves to cherish her memories; three sons: Walter (Debbie) Burns, Isaiah (Evelyn) Burns and Christopher (Dorcas) Burns; one daughter: Yolanda (James) Epps; twenty-two grandkids: Ashley, Walter Jr, Christy, Brittany, Letisia, Lakisha, Kenlanda, Shavonte, Isaiah, Adonis, Mekhi, Chrishawn, James, JaNasha, Jasmine, Darius, VaNasha Boo, Veronica, Xavier, Calvin, Charity and Rocky; and thirty-four great-grandchildren. Virgie also leaves to cherish her memories; three sisters: Mary Stuckey, Annie Burns and Catherine Burns; and one brother: Evester Burns.

Virgie loved all her grandkids the same, but she raised one as her own, Darius Tate and also had a special bond with her sister Catherine who was always her helping hand. Virgie Mae's name will live through her great granddaughter, Aaliah Mae.

Virgie also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved her dearly.
