

A Celebration of Life
For
Mabel Lester Dove
“MOMMO”

Sunrise
August 9, 1926

Sunset
February 14, 2023

The Viewing — Friday, March 3, 2023 — 9:30 AM

Celebratory Service — Friday, March 3, 2023 — 10 AM

Joseph H. Brown, Jr. Funeral Home P.A.
2140 N. Fulton Ave, Baltimore, MD 21217

Interment — Noon
Haiti Cemetery
205 Martin's Lane, Rockville, MD 20852

Repast
Immediately following Interment
7001 Loch Lomond Dr., Bethesda, MD 20817

ORDER OF SERVICE

Musical Prelude – Organist
(The Blood Never Lose It's Power)

Invocation

(Please be seated for the reading of the scriptures and the prayers)

Opening Musical Selection – Nova Y. Payton
(Precious Lord)

Prayer of Comfort

Reading of the Scriptures – Makala Barr
Old Testament - Psalm 23
New Testament - 1st Thessalonians 4:14-18

Reading of the Resolutions, Acknowledgements
& Cards – Chaplain Dederá Baker

Reading of the Obituary – Jesse Barr

Words of Reflections
Friends/Family
(2 Minutes, please)

Musical Selection – Nova Y. Payton
(God Is)

Eulogy - Minister Larry Rochelle Sarratt

The Family Recessional led by Clergy
I Shall Wear A Crown – (Organist)

All Ministers, Siblings, Relatives,
Special Guests

Interment - Haiti Cemetery, Rockville, MD

Repast following the Interment

Obituary for Mrs. Mabel Lester Martin-Dove

Mabel Lester Martin-Dove beloved daughter, and last surviving child of the late Clement St. Elmo Martin and Janie Virginia Jackson-Martin was born in Rockville, Maryland on August 9, 1926. She was affectionately known as MOMMO.

Mabel Dove was educated in the Montgomery County Public Schools; She enjoyed family gatherings, watching her nieces and nephews, playing Spades with her (teammates Kevin or Clair) and for some reason they would always win, cooking for family, and eating crabs. In her later years, she was knitting hats for everyone, taking exercise classes, eating onion pickles and shrimps. She is known for her beautiful smile, generosity and easy-going personality.

She had several nicknames during her lifetime Peaches, Red, Ida, and the most enduring and descriptive, she was affectionately known as MOMMO.

As her family increased, she moved from Rockville, to Darnstown, Boyds, Clarksburg, Gaithersburg and finally Baltimore in 1975.

Her siblings were Clement II, Perry, Arnold, Leon, Bernice, Virginia, Clairese.

Her children: Willie Dove (deceased), Franklin Dove (wife Joyce), Snowdean Dove, Wayne Dove, Mitchell Dove, Andrew Dove, Charles Dove, Clairresse Dove-Ward, Phyllis Dove (deceased).

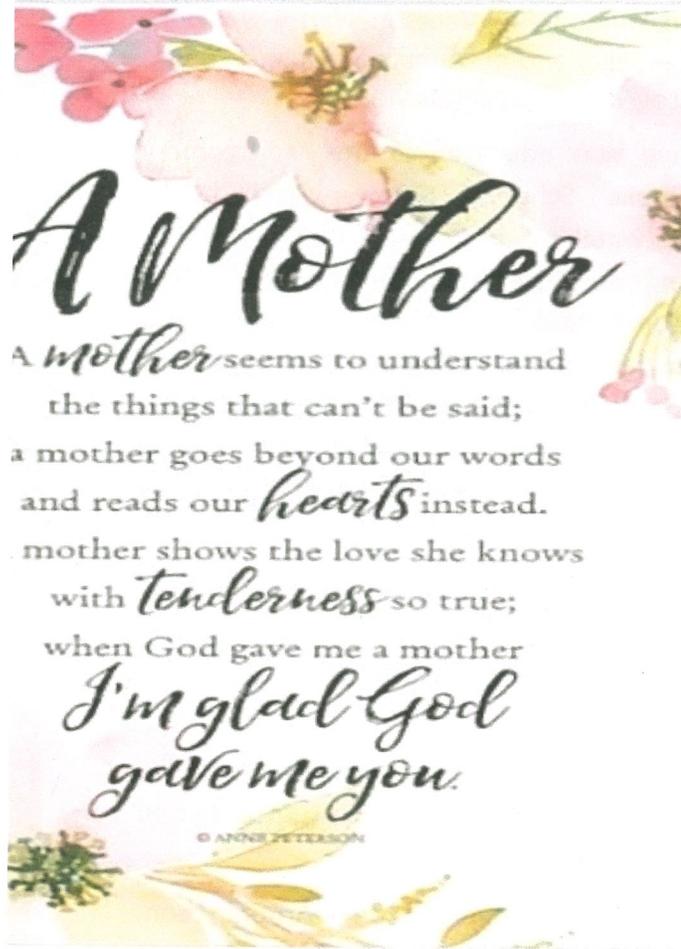

She has 20 grandchildren: Latoya, Ezra, Jesse Jr., Jessica, Justin, Makala; Bryan Jr.; Tiffany, Carlton, Ashley; Uushall, Sativea, Franklin II; Leon, Kimberly, Jasmine, Wayne Jr., Tyrell, Dominique, Brandon.

24 great grandchildren: Joshua, Naja; Cyrus, Jayden, Kingston; Tai'Heim, Tre'Quell, Kareem Jr., Kassydi; Samirien, Kadafi; Tyran, Kanaiya; Knox, Harlow; Jhene'; Lamya, Kamera, Ronald; Zyaire, Nathaniel; Victoria, Autumn.

3 great-great grandchildren: Kianna; Tre'Len, Tre'Mere.

MOMMO's son-in laws: Bryan Sr. Mark, Jesse Sr., and many nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Frank, Wayne, Mitchell, Andrew and Kevin Dove

In Appreciation and Acknowledgement

The family of Mabel Dove wishes to thank family and friends who have shared in our grief. GOD bless you, one and all, for the love, gifts, and acts of kindness during our time of bereavement.

Professional Services Entrusted to:
Joseph H. Brown, Jr. Funeral Home P.A.
2140 N. Fulton Ave, Baltimore, MD 21217