REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Mrs. Louise Goodley Sackiel was born on December 2, 1925, in North, South Carolina, to the late Mr. Henry Goodley Sr. and Mrs. Emma Heatley Goodley.

She was united in marriage to the late Mr. Clary Sackiel. To this union, six children were born: David (Leola), Emmaline, the late Dorothy Ann, Geraldine, Elouise, and Tyrone (Belinda)
Mrs. Sackiel was blessed with a large and loving family whose generations became a beautiful part of her legacy. Her life spanned five generations, giving her the extraordinary blessing of watching her family grow and flourish through the years.

Throughout her working years, Mrs. Sackiel performed domestic work for several families throughout Calhoun County. A hardworking and devoted woman, she spent many years caring for her family while also providing care and service to others within her community.

Mrs. Sackiel found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She especially loved spending time outdoors working in her yard, where she enjoyed planting and tending to her flowers. When she was not outside, she could often be found enjoying one of her favorite pastimes—watching her soap operas.

Mrs. Sackiel was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Mr. Clary Sackiel; her parents, Mr. Henry Goodley Sr. and Mrs. Emma Heatley Goodley; her daughter, Dorothy Ann; her siblings, Henry, Nathaniel, Wes, Gladys, and Verzell; and her great-grandson, Josiah.

Those left to cherish her precious memory and continue her legacy include her five children, David (Leola), Emmaline, Geraldine, Elouise, and Tyrone (Belinda), stepson, Wilbur Sackel; 13 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

Her memory will also be cherished by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, friends, and all those whose lives were touched by her presence throughout the years.

For more than a century, Mrs. Sackiel witnessed a world of change, yet the most enduring testament to her life can be found in the generations that came after her. From a mother of six grew a family that now reaches through children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

Her hands worked. Her flowers bloomed. Her family grew. And her legacy lives on.

Though she will be deeply missed, the love, strength, memories, and family she leaves behind will continue to carry her story forward for generations to come.

FOR OUR MOTHER

A mother's love does not end
when her hands can no longer hold us.
It remains in every life she touched,
every lesson she taught,
and every heart that learned to love because of her.
Mother, you were the beginning of our story,
the roots beneath our family tree,
and the quiet thread that connected generations.
Through every season of life,
you gave us pieces of yourself—
your strength, your wisdom,
your laughter, your sacrifices,
and a love that only a mother could give.
Today, our hearts are heavy because a place in our family can never be filled again.
But even in our sorrow,
we are grateful.
Grateful that God chose you to be our mother.
Grateful for the years we were given.
Grateful for memories that death cannot take away.
Your voice may now be silent,
and your chair may now be empty,
but your presence will remain in the stories we tell,
the traditions we continue,
and the generations who will know your name
because we will keep speaking it.
So rest now, Mother.
You have carried, cared, loved,
given, worried, prayed, and endured.
Your earthly work is complete.
And though we must learn how to live in a world without you,
we will never live in a world
without your love.
You will always be our Mother.
You will always be our home.
And you will always live within us.
With everlasting love,
Your Children, Grandchildren and loved ones
