

Obituary

Leroy, the son of Ethel Perkins and Golden Parker, was born on October 5, 1946, in Chicago, Illinois. At a young age, he moved to Yazoo City, Mississippi, where he was raised by his grandmother. After graduating from high school, Leroy began his working life as a caregiver at King's Daughter Hospital. He later worked as a supervisor at Water Land before dedicating 30 years of service as a construction worker. Throughout his life, Leroy was known as a kind and generous man – a good Samaritan who was always willing to lend a helping hand to others.

He peacefully departed this life, surrounded by family, on April 25, 2026 in Yazoo City, MS.
