HONORARY PALLBEARERS

All family & friends

We all leave something behind—
*not just in what we do,
but in how we made others feel.*

A legacy isn't measured by wealth or success,
but by the lives we touch, the love we give,
the kindness we show, and the hope we leave behind.
It's in the small moments of compassion,
the quiet strength in hard times,
and the way we lift others up
when they need it most.
The beauty of our legacy
is that it lives on—
in hearts we've touched
and in the difference
we made along the way.

In Loving Memory of Irene Donna Linklater
January 20, 1965—May 9, 2026

With heavy hearts the family of Irene Donna Linklater announces her peaceful passing on Saturday, May 09, 2026, at her home in Regina, Saskatchewan, at the age of 61 years.

Donna was born on Wednesday, January 20, 1965, in The Pas, Manitoba to Clara Marie Linklater and John Sinclair.

Donna was an out going happy, caring, kind, loving, humorous and strong person. She was a ray of sunshine. Even on hard times she was always smiling. She left an unforgettable mark on everyone she met.

Donna will be deeply missed by her family and friends. Her surviving only child Charlene Linklater. Especially her grandchildren Dante, Trennis, Winter, Teshawn, Prosper, Paris, Paige, Maya, Emma, and Kayne. She will also be missed by her siblings, Duane Pelly, Wendy Sinclair, Evelyn Sinclair, Judy (Gabe) Moose, Melissa Nabess and Doris Spence. Her special aunties and uncles Irene (Denny) Moose, Hilda Francois, Margaret Linklater, Christina Linklater and Marcel Bighetty.

Donna had special love for her cousins, nieces and nephews Kaitlin, Nathan, Preston, Lee Anna, Jasmine, Kylie, Rylee, Robbie, Dustin, Dixie, Audrey, Donald, Heavenly, Joanne, Connie, Linda, Wilma, Lloyd, Dave, Rosa, Sage, Daylight, Irene, Clifford, Punky, Darren, Darryl, Ludwig, Davey, CreeSky, Kerry, Elisa Mai, Terry, Elissa, Jonathan, George, Suzette, Gregory, Nichole, Max (Wanda), Kelly and many others.

Donna is lovingly reunited in the spirit world with her mother Clara Marie Sinclair; dad John Sinclair; son Leslie Linklater; baby Arlene Linklater; brother Clifford Sinclair; grandparents Philothee and Joseph Linklater, Naomi Sinclair; nieces Chasity McDonald, Kaya Sinclair; cousins P.J Bighetty, Nikisha Linklater, Solomon Linklater; and many others too numerous to mention that have left to the spirit world, but are not forgotten.

Donna was a loving mother, a devoted friend and a treasured niece. Her gentle spirit, compassionate heart, and the ability to bring people together will be remembered always. To know Donna was to be welcomed with open arms; carry her in your heart to hold onto love and compassion.

The family wishes to thank everyone for their support and their kind words and fond memories of Donna.
