WALLACE PATTEN

Wallace Patten was the oldest of five children, born to the late Eugene and Juanita Patten on May 25, 1940, in Edgefield, South Carolina. He transitioned peacefully on April 15, 2025.

At a young age, Wallace—affectionately known as “Dilly”—left his hometown and made Boston his new home. Some of Dilly’s favorite pastimes included playing baseball in his youth and early to mid adulthood and spending time with family. Each summer, he would drive from Boston to various locations to attend family reunions and reconnect with loved ones in his hometown.

Dilly took great pride in being a hard worker. Even after retiring from Hood Dairy, he continued to work part-time, a testament to his strong work ethic.

Dilly leaves to celebrate his life his sisters, Lois Jackson and Geneva Simms (Charles); along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his twin brother Warren Patten, and his sister Mamie Harris.

Prayer of Salvation

*Heavenly Father,
I come to You in the name of Jesus.
I confess that I am a sinner,
and I ask for Your forgiveness.
I believe in my heart that Jesus Christ is Your Son,
that He died on the cross for my sins,
and that You raised Him from the dead.
Today, I turn from my old ways and invite You into my life.
Jesus, be my Lord and Savior.
Come into my heart, fill me with Your Holy Spirit,
and help me live a life that honors You.
Thank You for saving me.
Thank You for making me a new creation.
In Jesus' name, Amen.*

The Family

The family would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to all of you. We are blessed by the love you have shown, the friendship we have known, the prayers you have prayed and the kindness you have displayed. We are grateful for the cards and love. Whatever you did to console our hearts.

~God Bless You

We Thank You So Very Much
