The Weather Man

I worried about the weather,
I could not let it rain.
I know that others were watching,
I know that they'd complain.

Although not my decision
I could not let it snow.
With icy frost in forest Where would the creatures go.

The heat of the swollen sun,
That burnt the farmer's crop.
I crawled across the corn fields.
I tried to make it stop.

It was not my intension
To rescue heavens plan
I am just a human being,
I am just a weather man.

Then I found from nature's beauty,
Its love I always see.
And never have to rescue,
Because it rescued me.

In Loving Memory
of
PHILIP
LAWRENCE
HARPER

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Phil, loving father,

grandfather and great-grandfather after a short illness.

Phil will be lovingly remembered by his daughters Barbara and Tracy, grand-daughter Siobhan (Travis) and great-granddaughter Harper and by his sister Pamela (Rick), brother-in-law Don, nieces Corrie, Shannon and Gail and nephews Jeff, Gerald, Brian and Ken. Phil is predeceased by his partner Patricia, brothers Art, Roy, Reid and Gerry and niece Myrna.

Phil grew up in Togo, Saskatchewan until he enlisted in the army in 1960. This explains two of his favourite things – the Saskatchewan Roughriders and enjoying a pint at the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 19. He loved golfing, curling, camping, boating, and fishing, appreciated classic country music and following sports of all kinds.
