

She is Gone!

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of love that you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live in yesterday, or you can be happy for your tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she is gone, or you could cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she would want:

Smile, open your eyes, love, and go on!

Obituary

Dorothy Nell Frazier was born on August 13, 1940, in Birmingham, AL, to her late parents, John L. and Mildred Frazier. She was the oldest of seven siblings. She grew up attending 46th Street Baptist Church, where she sang in the choir. Dorothy attended A.H. Parker High School and graduated at the age of 16. After high school, she attended Lawson State Nursing School, where she earned her degree as an LPN.

She married Edgar F. Spencer on April 22, 1958. From this union, they welcomed seven children: Kenneth, Vicki (Bruce), Kim, Marche, Michael (Alisa), Deontrine, and Keith. In 1967, they relocated to Cleveland, Ohio, where she worked various nursing jobs until retiring from NEON Health Center. After her marriage to Edgar ended, she met her partner, Horace Green. They traveled and enjoyed life together until his passing.

Dorothy loved playing cards with her children, cooking for her family, shopping, dancing, and music. Her favorite artists were Smokie Norful, Shirley Caesar, Le'Andria Johnson, and Chris Brown.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her siblings Emma, John, and Doug, and by two children, Kenneth and Kim.

She leaves to mourn her five remaining children; siblings Betty (Jimmy), Terrance (Heidi), and Johnathan (Sharon); 25 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
