

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

May I Go Now?

May I go now? Do you think the time is right?

May I say goodbye to pain filled days and endless lonely nights? I've lived my life and done my best, an example tried to be, So I can take that step beyond and set my spirit free? I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might, but something seems to draw me now to a warm and living light.

I want to go I really do. It's difficult to stay, but I will try as best I can to live just one more day, to give you time to care for me and share your love and fears, I know you're sad and afraid, because I see your tears. I'll not be far, I promise that, and I hope you'll always know that my spirit will be close to you wherever you may go.

Thank you so for loving me. You know I love you too. That's why it's hard to say goodbye and end this life with you. So hold me now just one more time and let me hear you say, because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.

Take a Breath for Me
As I sit in heaven, and watch you everyday
I try to let you know I never went away.
I hear you when you're laughing
And watch you as you sleep
I put my arms around you
To calm you as you weep.
I see you wish the days away
Beggng to have me home
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone
Don't feel guilty that you have
Life that was denied to me
Heaven is truly beautiful
Just you wait and see
So live your life, laugh again
Enjoy yourself, be free
Then I know with every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me...

VAUGHN DARRELL HANDY

Obituary

Vaughn Darrell Handy peacefully departed this life on August 2, 2024, at the age of 68, after a lengthy illness. Vaughn was born on July 8, 1956, to Shirley E. Handy (Cherry) and Marion Collins.

Vaughn received his early education at Salisbury Elementary School, then to Hebron Elementary, graduating in 1974 from Mardela High School. After high school, Vaughn enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. After military training, he became an Aircraft Mechanic. During his years of service, Vaughn was stationed in Arizona, Japan, California, Hawaii, and Iraq. After his tours of duty, Vaughn retired after 20 years of service as an SSgt (Staff Sergeant). Then Vaughn lived in Hawaii for twenty years. Finally, Vaughn decided it was time to come back home. Vaughn enjoyed going to car shows, drag racing, motorcycles, Westerns, and music.

Vaughn leaves to cherish his loving memory, twin brothers, Leo and Preston Cherry of Salisbury, MD; sisters, Lydia Cartwright of New Castle, DE and Arnita Collins of Salisbury, MD; uncles, Charles (Doris) Handy of Salisbury, MD and Robert (Evelyn) Handy of Delmar, DE; an aunt, Wanda (Sherwood) Pinder of Hurlock, MD; and a host of cousins, family, and friends.
