Obituary

Alice Virginia Jones was born September 26, 1934 in Summerville, S.C., in the Knightsville community, to the late David and Alberta Pryor Rivers. Alice was affectionately known to her family as “Sister”. Alice was educated in the Dorchester County Public School System in Summerville, SC. She relocated to Newark, New Jersey in 1957 to find employment. In that year, she found employment and met the love of her life, Arreus Jones. It was shortly after that Alice and Arreus married.

Alice was employed at Ideal Toy in Elizabeth, NJ, Great Eastern Store in Union, NJ and performed domestic housekeeping.

Alice cherished spending time with her family along with attending gospel concerts, cooking, shopping, playing the lottery, going to the casino, and listening to oldies but goodies and gospel music.

Alice had a love for children and with that love, she became a foster parent to several children.

On November 24, 2019, while surrounded by family, God called Alice home from her earthly labor and illnesses.

Alice was preceded in death by husband Arreus, son Maurice, daughter Belinda, great grandson, Dawoo (Mann) Walker, two foster sons (Marcus and Rajuan Francis), her parents David and Alberta Rivers; three brothers David Jr., Henry and Benjamin Rivers; one son-in- law (Reese Moses).
