

In our Hearts

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
We think of you in silence, we often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake, with which we'll never part.
Jehovah God has you in his keeping, we forever have you in our hearts.

Love, Your Sister, Jacqueline Williams and family!

Acknowledgments

The family gratefully acknowledges the many kind and beautiful expressions of sympathy and love shown during its hour of bereavement. Our family would like to share a comforting scripture with loved ones, friends and those she has met through passing. We look forward to the time when the words of Daniel 12:2 comes true which says, "and there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust, who will wake up to indefinitely lasting life..."

From the family of Annie Travers

Repass will follow immediately after the service at:

9 Eleven Event Center
8777 Philadelphia Road
Rosedale, MD 21237

Joseph H. Brown, Jr. Funeral Home
2140 N. Fulton Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21217
Reverend James E. Green * Officiating

In Loving Memory of

Annie Nora Travers

*Sunrise * December 7, 1939*

*Sunset * November 7, 2023*

Friday, November 17, 2023

Family Viewing 9:30 AM -10:00 AM

Public Viewing 10:00 AM -10:30 AM

Funeral 10:30 AM- 12:00 PM

Obituary

Anne Nora Travers was born on December 7, 1939, as Annie Nora Williams in Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of the late Margaret Williams-Dickerson and Elvin Williams.

She departed this life on Tuesday, November 7, 2023, after battling breast cancer.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public School. She married Anderson J.

Pigatt, Sr. and had several children. She was known as the "rolls lady" she made the best homemade rolls you ever tasted and would give bags of rolls to neighbors on the block. She pierced the ears of all the girls, she sold candy apples for the neighborhood. She was a Daycare Mother to several children. On Fridays she loved getting together with her family having fish fries, playing cards, bingo, music, singing, eating crabs and having a good time.

She is preceded in death by her sisters Elizabeth Holland, Rhetta Bowell, and Phyllis Whelchel, and her brother Melvin Williams. Three sons Antoine Pigatt, Troye Pigatt and Everette Jackson. She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters Denise Williams and Vanessa Pigatt, son Anderson J. Pigatt, Jr., and sister Jacqueline Williams. Also leaving to cherish her memory are 14 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that loved her dearly. She was strong willed, and feisty, but she also had an enormous heart and wonderful sense of humor. She was generous, loyal, and brave. She was clever and full to the brim with self-taught knowledge through reading Jet magazine, world encyclopedias and doing many, many search a word books.

Annie made the time to show up for everyone who reached out to her, she bought several individuals into her home who needed a place to stay and she provided care, sound counsel to them and she was very trustworthy. She simply wanted to brighten the hearts of people, and that she surely did! Peace and caring filled her, and kindness was her middle name.

Annie will be remembered for all the heartfelt loving moments she shared with her friends and family. Annie is now sailing on a journey to shores that we cannot see. We know that she is free from pain and resting peacefully with her Father in Heaven.

Order of Service

Hymm

Scripture

Old Testament

Psalm 91

New Testament

II Corinthians 1:3-4

Prayer

Selection

Remarks

Acknowledgements

Obituary

Selection

Eulogy

Rev. James E. Green

Benediction