

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
 I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
 Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
 The good life I lived while I was strong.
 Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
 Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
 My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
 Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
 Continue traditions, no matter how small.
 Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
 I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
 Until the day comes we're together again.

OBITUARY

James (Jim) Green was born on October 14, 1933, to Charles and Lulla Green in Columbus, Ohio. He passed away on September 5, 2025, at the age of 91 at Ohio State University (Rhoades Hall) in Columbus, Ohio.

At a very young age, James attended Friendship Missionary Baptist Church and was educated at Mound Street School.

He worked at Myers Bakery from a young age and remained there for approximately 25 years. Later, James retired from the Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 423, in Columbus, Ohio.

James will continue to live through us—through the lessons he taught, the love he shared, and the example he set. May we honor his legacy by living with respect, discipline, and kindness, just as he taught us.

James was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Lulla Green; Conchita Brunner; his brothers William, Charles Jr., and Muhammed (Sharon) Green; and his sisters Vera Green, Ora (Donald) Travis, Mary Green, and Geraldine (Larry) Smith.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved son, Ricardo (Sofie) Brunner of Columbus, Ohio; Chad Simms; his sisters Lula (John) Zellner, Juanita Green, Minnie (Frank) Cunningham of Columbus, Ohio, and Betty Reynolds of Kansas City; along with a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many other relatives and friends.

REMEMBER ME

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.*

*I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,*

*As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.*

*Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.*
