

We Give Him Back

We give him back to you O Lord, who first gave him to us. And as you did not lose him in the giving, so we do not lose him by return. For what is yours is ours also, if we belong to you. Life is unending and undying. And the boundary of this mortal life is but a horizon. And a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight. Lift us up strong Son of God that we may see further. Close our eyes that we may see more clearly. And while you prepare a place for us, prepare us for that happy place that we will be with you and with all those who we love forever more. Amen

DeLous Alton Creamer was born July 18, 1935 in Mitchell, SD to Alton and Shirley (Cummings) Creamer. DeLous lived near Bijou Hills during his younger years then moved to his current place when his father bought the Dode Somers place in the fall of 1943. DeLous attended Somers and Cable schools then completed his schooling at Chamberlain High School.

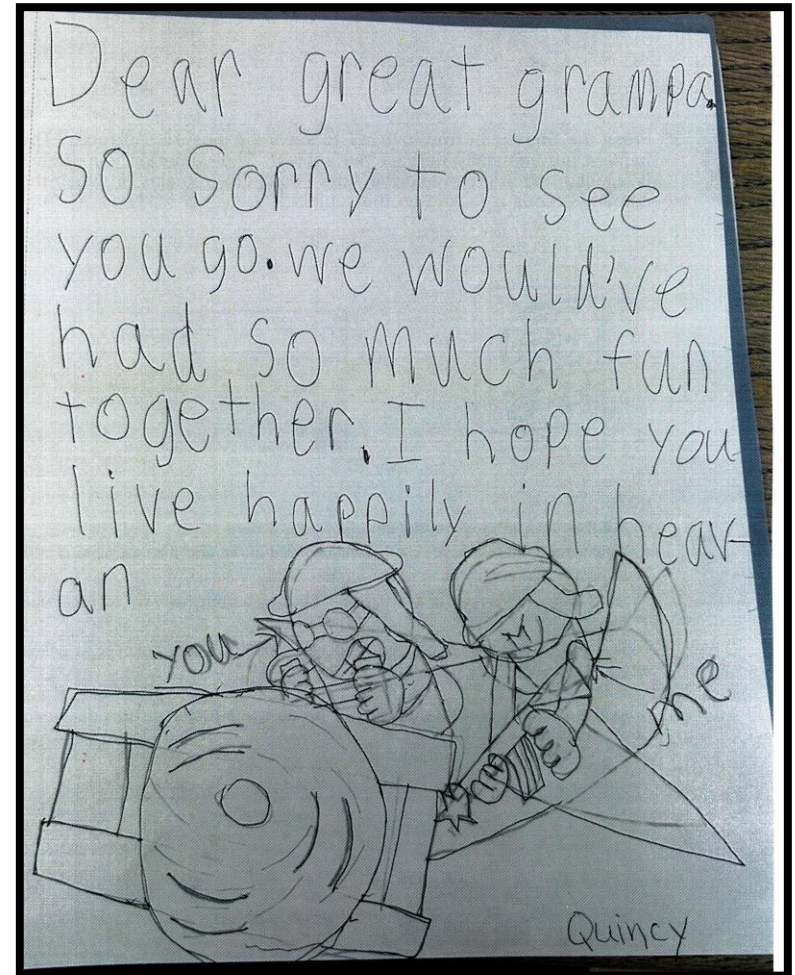

On June 11, 1958, DeLous was united in marriage to Darleen G. Balster of Kimball, SD. They made their home at the Creamer Farm farming the land, raising feeder calves, and later cleaning seed. DeLous and Alton started the seed business in 1968, first cleaning seed for their own use then expanding to a business.

DeLous Creamer also started fixing airplanes in 1986 which was always a passion for him. He rebuilt airplanes and later built ultra lights. DeLous liked jokingly to say, "Most parents worry about their kids taking their cars for a drive, I had to worry about my kids taking the airplane after I taught them how to fly!"

DeLous was an active member of the Zion Lutheran Church in Chamberlain. DeLous and Darleen enjoyed donating bibles to the confirmation classes every year.

Gratefully sharing his life are his daughters Francine Swanson of Chamberlain, SD, Julie (Lanny) Renshaw of Lincoln, NE, Linda Creamer of Andover, MN and Gene (Paula) Creamer of Dorchester, NE. Grandchildren: Jennifer, Ryan, Craig, Tiffany (Michael) Sinkie, Cody, Kyle, Kelsey Swanson; Tyson, Jarrek, Nicola, Jave, Mason Renshaw; Misty Lewis (Nicholi) Freeman, Charde (Jim) McGuiggan, Shaleena, Terence, Janaya (John) Hodson, Casey, Bryce, Aunika Lewis; Tiernan (Hope) Creamer, Ripley (Chris) Nelson, Kyra Creamer. Great-grandchildren: Sophe, Quincy, Amira Freeman; James III, Rozz, Lillytu McGuiggan; Kingston, Aubree Lewis; Galilee, Emmaus Creamer, Charlene Nelson.

Preceding him in death was his mother Shirley (Cummings) Creamer, father Alton Creamer, wife Darleen Creamer, grandchild Daniel Swanson.
