The Link

They say memories are golden;
well maybe that is true.
I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.
A million times I needed you,
a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
you never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly,
in death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
no one could ever fill.
If tears could build a stairway
and heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to Heaven
and bring you back again.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Expressions of Thanks

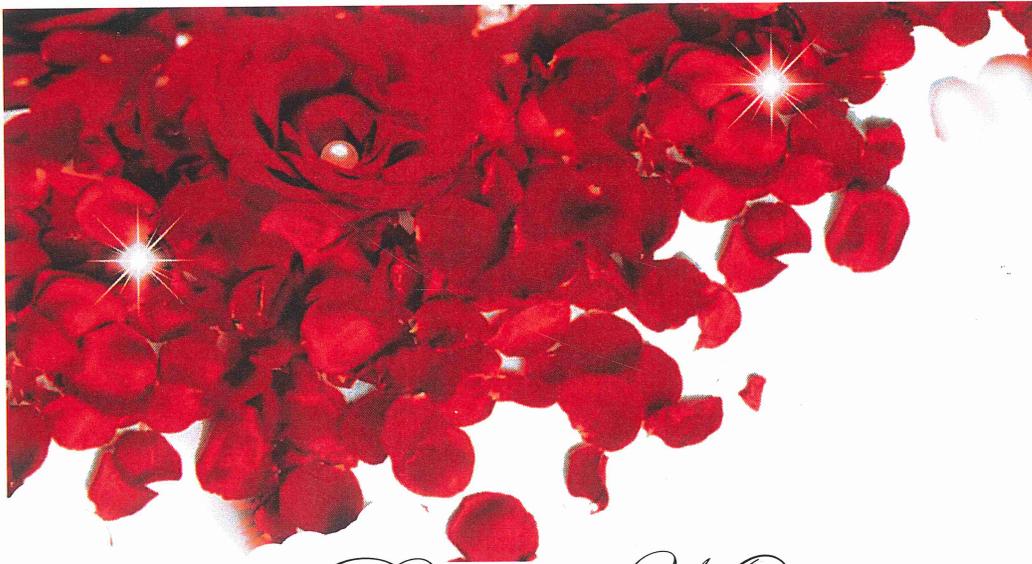

The family of Mrs. Beulah Mae Brown-Kiah for the love and support shown to them during this difficult time. Your comforting calls, cards, visits and other acts of kindness have given us strength and inspiration for the facing of this hour and many years to come. May God forever bless each of you.

Beulah Mae
BROWN-KIAH

“For everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven...” Ecclesiastes 3:1

*B*eulah Mae Brown-Kiah, 87 of Savannah, GA was called home peacefully on August 9, 2025 at 2:59 p.m. She was born on February 18, 1938, to the late Ulysses and Rosa Lee Brown.

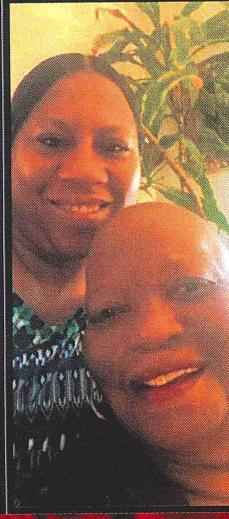

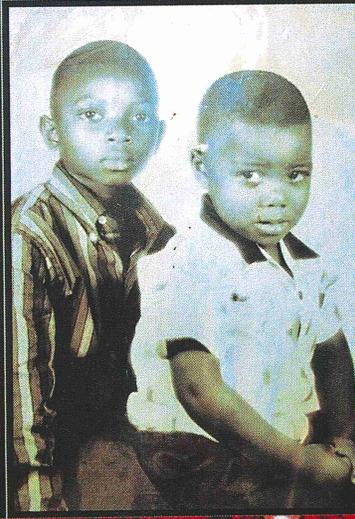

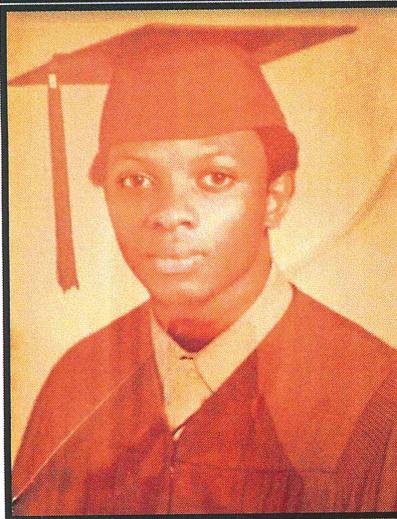

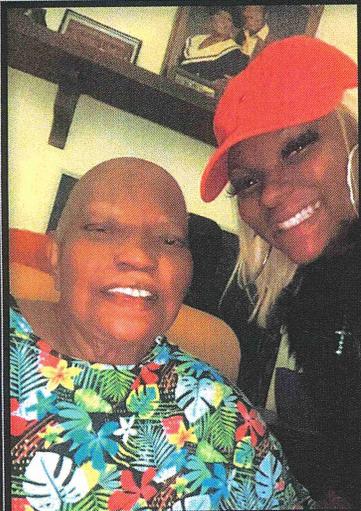

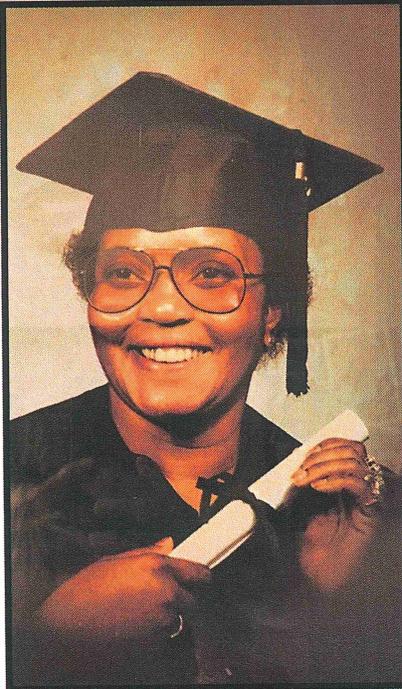

She is a retiree from the State of Georgia. She also was an active member of the Savannah Community Choir and Sidney Jones Funeral Home. She joined Jonesville Baptist Church where she sang with the Jonesville Baptist Church Choir. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Victor Kiah. Beulah and Victor also loved being a part of the Liberty City Community Center.

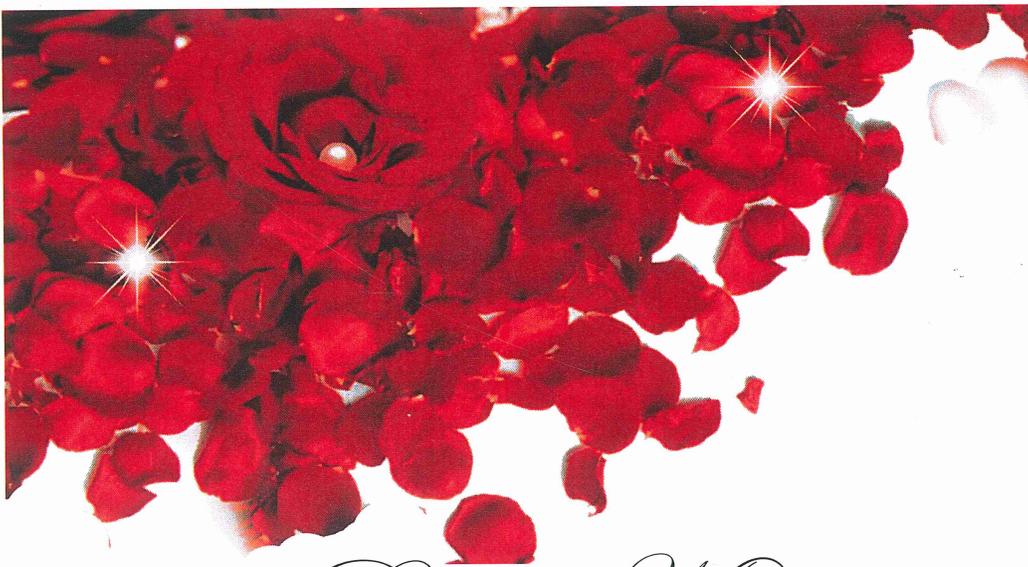

Beulah was an amazing, loving, compassionate wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother, sister, aunt, friend, and family member.

When you met Beulah it was “Love” at first sight. She loved “Everyone” and everyone “Loved” her. Beulah was known for her beautiful smile, beautiful eyes, and loving spirit.

Beulah is survived by her devoted husband, Victor Kiah (Tina); two sons, Rudolph “Rudy” Jackson (Debbie) and Walter “Ron” Hall (and Family) both of Savannah, GA; sister, Joann Brown-Castle; brothers, Richard Brown (Alice) and George Brown, 11 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, 13 great-great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, godson, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
