"It's not the age of a man's business, but the service he renders that counts" is our motto here at Brown's Funeral Home, Inc. We pray that our services have been a source of support and strength for all families we are privileged to serve. The management and staff continue to strive for excellence and the finest in the services we render. Remember...No Cross, No Crown; No Prayer, No Power; Little Prayer, Little Power; Much Prayer, Much Power because it is in prayer that you will find Comfort and Peace.

Life Reflections

ae West Missouri was born November 17, 1940 to the late Ollie Patterson Missouri and Lewis Missouri, Sr.

Mae received her education at Carver Elementary School in Bethune and St. Matthew School in Camden.

She was converted and baptized at an early age under her uncle Robert Missouri, Sr. and her father Lewis Missouri, Sr. Later she moved to New York and attended Gatherlene Baptist Church.

Mae was a people person. She loved to dress in expensive clothes, listening to Gospel and R & B music, entertaining, and cooking. She was also the neighborhood beautician and loved visiting with her sister Liz.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Ollie Patterson Missouri and Lewis Missouri, Sr.; three brothers: George W. Missouri, David Missouri, and Robert Lee Missouri; six sisters: Viola Missouri Warren, Susie Missouri Thomas, Ida Mae Missouri, Hattie Missouri Newman, Willene Missouri Middleton, and Gertrude Missouri Clark; and a grandson: Robert Anthony Missouri.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories seven daughters: Gwendolyn Missouri, Glenda Missouri Hislop (Theodore), Keisha R. Missouri, Patricia Missouri, Destiny Missouri, Amanda Missouri, and Danielle Missouri; three sons: Steven Missouri, Robert Missouri (Frina), Eugene "Shane" Missouri; one sister: Elizabeth Missouri Harris; one brother: Lewis Missouri, Jr. (Thomasina); 13 grandchildren: Melissa, Samuel, Frayondre, Dalvondre, Lena, Jenasia, Dashne, Diamond, Isiah, Treyron, Joseph, Kialia, and Cashem; eight great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
