

Poem

What a Beautiful Day it will be When we meet again We'll Laugh like we used to But this time it will never end Daddy, you gave us hope, strength and were always by our side
 Oh what a day it will be When we see your smile
 another time
 Thank you for all the love you gave It's well within my heart
 The missing piece will be whole again
 And this time we shall never part

-Jera

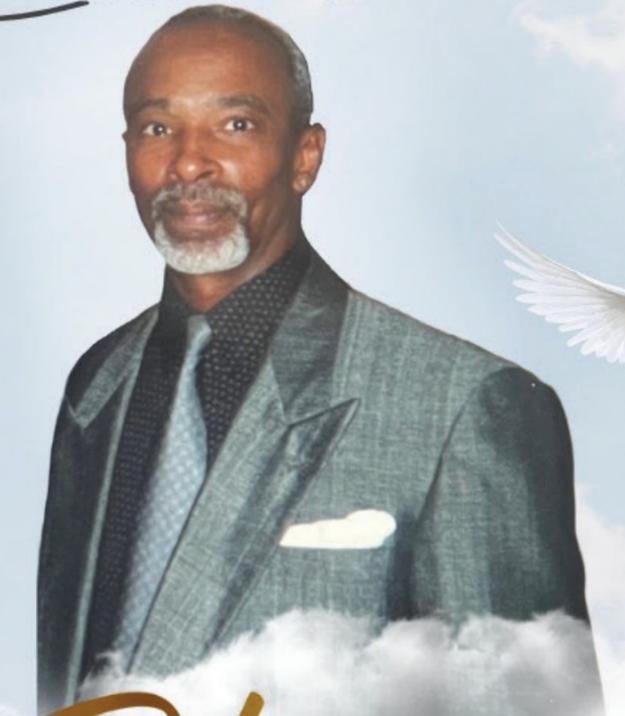

Psalm 139: 7-10

"Where can i go from your spirit?
 Where can i flee from your presence?
 If i go up to the heavens, you are there; if i make my bed in the depths, you are there.
 If i rise on the wings of the dawn, if i settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast."

Obituary

On May 7th, 1954, Botney Decarlo Boyd, was born in Evanston, Ohio, to the late Thomas Green Boyd and Lelia Mae Jones. At a young age, Botney accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior.

Botney, lovingly known as Scooter Boyd, had a deep love for music, chess, and education. He attended Withrow High School, graduating in 1973, and went on to attend Bowling Green State University. After college, he moved to Long Beach, California, where he enjoyed spending time with friends and relatives on the West Coast.

Upon returning to Cincinnati, Botney joined Sally Stollings to create Family Fun Affair, a family entertainment company he adored. He was passionate about being a magician and loved performing magic tricks to brighten someone's day. Botney cherished his family and took great pride in his role as a loving father and grandfather. He delighted in watching his favorite movies, attending sporting events and live concerts, and listening to jazz.

Botney will always be remembered for his supportive nature, kind words, and bubbly personality.

He is preceded in death by his brothers, Demetrius and Virgil Boyd; his sisters, Stachia Graber and Kim Thomas; and his parents, Thomas Boyd and Lelia Jones. He is survived by his sister, Sadrena Warner; his brother, Jurado Graber; and his children, Faith Cockrell, Byron Faulkner, Bryan Brown, Jera, Jasmine, Jackie, and Janice Boyd.

His grandchildren include Tiasia Cockrell; Sonny, Sonee, and Samar Boyd; Symphony Cunningham; Dasia, Byron Jr., Sasha, and Kameron Faulkner. He also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
