

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me.
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me.
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.
It was just my time,
but I will see you someday
on the other side.

Don't cry for me.
I am not alone.
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me.
This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you
when we meet again.

Obituary

Nina Catrice Williamson was born on June 3, 1975, to Anderson and Curlie (Dowell) Williamson in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Nina was the youngest of Curlie's (Boone's) seven daughters. Nina is preceded in death by her parents, her sister Deborah (Dowell) Boyd, Stephanie (Dowell) Johnson, Her nephew Sean Johnson, her great niece Jada Symonne Moore, and her friend Sam Rogers.

Nina attended The Main Street Chapel under the direction of Doctor Matt Hallam. She was also a member and sang and traveled with the Main Street Chapel Choir. Nina loved singing and listening to music.

She loved playing her Xbox sim games, crossword puzzles, and watching cooking and crime shows. She loved talking to her friend Eric White who never missed a day calling her. Nina was short and sassy and could make you smile or make you mad. Nina was a great Mom and Grandmother. She especially loved her nieces and nephews and great-nephew Armani. She always wanted to see her family happy and was always willing to help make that happen. She will be greatly missed by her family, friends, and loved ones.

Nina leaves to cherish her memory, her daughters, Briana Williamson, Stephanie Williamson, and Deja Williamson, and her Granddaughter Sienna Williamson. Her sisters Cynthia Dowell, Elizabeth (Alexander) Swain, Cheryl (Dowell) McCollum, Darlene Dowell and Sister/Cousin Valarie Dowell. A host of Nieces and nephews, cousins, extended family, and Friends.
