

The 23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

IN LOVING MEMORY

KERRY BELL

October 17, 1947

November 8, 2025

*In Loving Memory
Of Kerry Allen Bell*

*Memorial Visitation:
Friday, November 21, 2025
6:00 pm – 8:00 pm
Beaty Funeral Home
Winnsboro, Texas*

*“Blessed are the pure in heart:
for they shall see God.”
Matthew 5:8*

Kerry Allen Bell, 78, of Winnsboro, Texas, passed away peacefully at his home on November 8, 2025, at 2:37 a.m. Born on October 17, 1947, in Marshal, Texas. Kerry grew up in Winnsboro, where he attended school both there and in Como-Pickton. He also spent a short time in Midland, Texas, during his high school years.

As a child, Kerry attended church faithfully and was saved and baptized at the age of nine-an important moment that shaped his lifelong love for Jesus. From an early age, he found joy in the outdoors. He was an excellent swimmer and loved fishing, and he discovered a deep appreciation for growing things while helping his father in the garden.

Kerry is survived by his siblings, Raylene Bell of Golden, Colorado, Partner Pam Showalter; and Mark Bell of Winnsboro, Texas; his children, Francie Clampitt of Gilmer, Texas, Jennifer Rossi and husband Aldo of Sulphur Springs, Texas, and Kerry Joe Bell of Longview, Texas; and his grandchildren; Dirk Colton Martin, Wife Brittnay Martin, Austin Dakota Martin, significant other Lauren Brewster, Keston Michael Durrett, wife Ashlee Durrett, Myah Alexa Rossi, Cheyenne Niedert and Jerrod Bell; great grand children include Bradley, Strider, Braunz, Brett, Braxton, Stetson, Braylee, Madden, Kinslee, Amelia, Kase, and Konner. He also had many cousins which include: Lana, Teresa, David, Susan, Nancy, Don, Billy, Shirley who visited and supported him lovingly during his last final months. Also many friends showed support and love.

Kerry lived a life marked by hard work, curiosity, laughter, and a quiet but steady spirit. A lifelong truck driver, he traveled cross-country for many years and hauled everything from milk and gas to oilfield parts and ice cream. He also drove a school bus for his Winnsboro School district. He worked as a painter in Tyler, managed a convenience store in his younger days, and owned a junk store in Winnsboro, Texas with his brother Mark.

No matter where life took him, Kerry always returned to the things he loved: raising chickens, planting a garden and spending time with family. He enjoyed board games- especially chess, at which he was a true genius. He loved playing cards and continued to play pool in a local league up until he was no longer able to drive. Adventurous by nature, he was always the first to try something and the first to lend a hand.

Kerry loved his family deeply, loved Jesus wholeheartedly, and lived a quiet courage that inspired those around him. His presence, humor, intelligence, and gently spirit will be profoundly missed.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to Cypress Basin Hospice for their compassion and care during Kerry's final months. Special gratitude goes to Macy, his nurse, and Gabby, his nurse aide, for their dedication and kindness.

Kerry lived his life by his simple motto: "Annie-Over"

May his adventurous spirit continue to inspire all who knew and loved him.