IN LOVING MEMORY OF

A Final Farewell

As we gather to celebrate the life and homegoing of our beloved Shakur Muhaimin, we are reminded that life is a precious gift from God. Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in the love we shared and the memories that will never fade. Shakur, your journey on earth is complete. You will always remain a part of our family, and your memory will live on in our hearts. We thank God for the time He allowed us to share with you, and we place our trust in

His everlasting love and grace.

Rest in peace, dear brother. You are loved, you are remembered, and you will never be forgotten.

Expression of Gratitude

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere and heartfelt appreciation to everyone who has shown love and support. We appreciate and thank you for every prayer, visit, phone call, text, warm embrace – whatever gesture you extended we have embraced it as it has left an indelible mark on our hearts. Your love and kindness will always be remembered by each of us.

Reflections of His Life

Shakur Muhaimin, whose birth name was James Simmons Jr., was born on September 22, 1956, in Charleston, South Carolina. He was the beloved son of the late Gladys Jenkins Simmons and the late James Simmons Sr.

Shakur was a cherished brother, uncle, cousin, and friend whose life touched the hearts of many. He enjoyed the simple things in life. He loved reading and listening to music, which brought him joy and comfort throughout his life

Shakur received his general education through Wallace Elementary School. He carried his love for reading and music with him; these interests remained a meaningful part of his life.

In May 2026, Shakur rededicated his life back to Jesus Christ. This was a precious and meaningful moment in his spiritual journey as he turned his heart once again toward the Lord. His family finds comfort in knowing that God's grace and love were present in his life.

On September 11, 2026, at the age of 69, Shakur departed this earthly life and entered eternal rest. Although he is no longer with us in the flesh, the love he shared and the memories he created will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

Shakur leaves to cherish his precious memory four sisters: Patricia Brown, Brenda Jenkins, Juanita Simmons, and Joannetta Simmons-Waters, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever remember his life, his presence, and the memories they shared with him.

Matthew 11:28

“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”
