The Obituary

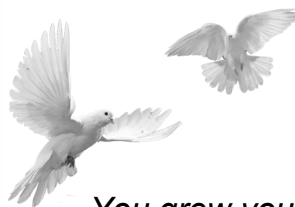

*A precious one from us is gone
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our homes
Which never can be filled*

Marquis Shamar Revis, son of Dwayne Tibbs and the late Cydni M. Revis, entered eternal rest at VCU Medical Center on November 30, 2025. Marquis was born on June 28, 2001 in South Hill, Virginia.

Marquis attended Mecklenburg County Public Schools. In 2020, he graduated from Bluestone High School where he loved to play basketball. Among his favorite pastimes, he enjoyed playing video games, hanging out with his cousins and friends, as well as spending quality time with his nephew DJ. He would also often spend time fishing with his uncle.

In addition to his mother, Cydni M. Revis, Marquis was also preceded in death by his grandmother, Beverly Tibbs.

He leaves to cherish loving memories: his father, Dwayne Tibbs of Washington, DC; his grandmother, Wanda Revis of Chase City; his sisters, Aniyah Townes, Kazarie Revis, Jazariona Revis, Takia Nelson, Teira Coles, and N'adea Elam of Chase City; his aunts, Arie Tibbs of North Carolina, Tia Wilson of South Hill, Vashanua Smithson (Carnell Jr.) of Chase City, and Latasha Revis (William) of Clarksville; his uncles, Marcus W. Coles of South Hill, Antonia Coles (LaNikki) and Derrick Downey of Clarksville, Calvin Revis of South Boston and Brian Minor; devoted friends, Todd and Sharod; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*You grew your wings before your time,
A life still blooming, cut mid-rhyme.
We hold your laughter in our chest,
A heartbeat paused, but never rest.*

*Your name still dances in our home,
Your spirit here — you're not alone.
A cousin, brother, friend so true,
A piece of us lives on in you.*

*Though Heaven called you far too soon,
We feel you in the sun and moon.
A gentle sign, a whispered light,
You guide us through the darkest night.*

*We celebrate the love you gave,
The memories no loss can take.
Forever young, forever near —
We keep you close, year after year.*

*Until we meet again one day,
We'll love you more than words can say.*

*Lovingly Submitted,
The Family*
