Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Donald LeRoy Hill

Donald LeRoy Hill, 83, of Green Ridge, Missouri, passed away peacefully at his home on October 5, 2026. Born on April 23, 1943, in Sedalia, Missouri, he was the beloved son of Norman and Elizabeth (Settles) Hill, both of whom preceded him in death.

On September 27, 1981, Donald was united in marriage to Janice Kay Sherwood at El Dorado United Methodist Church in Green Ridge, Missouri. Janice, his devoted wife of 45 years, survives him at their home.

Donald retired from Pittsburg Corning after many dedicated years of service. An avid outdoorsman, he found great joy in fishing and target shooting, and he delighted in racing his lawn mowers around the yard. Donald was known for his cheerful spirit and never met a stranger. Deeply involved in his faith, he was an active member of Calhoun Community Church. He also had a passion for collecting antique cars and tractors, which brought him much happiness.

In addition to his beloved wife, Donald is survived by his five children: Pamela Park (Todd Kleinfelder), David Hill, Nancy Slebos (Ryan), Warren Garrett (Melanie), and Jennifer Wiseman (Kevin). He is also remembered by his daughter-in-law, Victoria Hill; 12 grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; his brother, Larry Hill (Linda); two sisters, June Tipton and Jean Ward; and many cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Besides his parents, Donald is preceded in death by a son, LeRoy Hill, and previous wife, Myra George.
