

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne

He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

Obituary

Todd Juan Greenlea was born on June 16, 1963, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Rev. Aaron E. Greenlea and Betty Jane Greenlea. He was the fourth of six children in a family rooted in faith, love, and strength. On July 2, 2025, Todd was called home to Glory, leaving behind a legacy of character, compassion, and deep belief.

From a young age, Todd accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized under the leadership of Pastor L.V. Booth. His faith remained unwavering throughout his life. Whether seated in his favorite chair reading his Bible or attending Bible study regularly, Todd's walk with Christ was evident to all who knew him.

Todd began his education at Bond Hill Elementary, completed it at St. Agnes, and graduated from Purcell High School. He continued his studies at Walsh University, majoring in English. With a heart for service, Todd enlisted in the U.S. Army on September 30, 1986. He completed Basic Training at Fort Dix and Advanced Individual Training (AIT) as a Multichannel Communications Systems Operator, serving a tour of duty in Europe before being honorably discharged.

After his military service, Todd worked in a variety of professions where his creativity and dedication shone. He worked with youth while employed at Talbert House. Later, he was employed at Corrflex Manufacturing as a printer, where his design work ranged from tissue boxes to billboards—earning him numerous employee recognition awards. He later worked in the funeral industry, bringing both professionalism and empathy to grieving families. For the last decade of his life, Todd served in maintenance for Scarlet and Grey, working with the Indian Hill, Finneytown, and Winton Woods school districts.

Todd was a gifted conversationalist whose words could bridge gaps between strangers. Whether speaking with a homeless individual or the CEO of a company, he left an impression. He was known for quick wit, amazing humor, his ability to impersonate anyone, deep knowledge politics, and a love of hip hop and gospel music. He was an avid athlete, playing football and soccer through high school and college. He had a strong appreciation for comic books and was a devoted viewer of programs like Meet the Press. His intellect, honor, and dignity were evident in everything he did.

Todd was a devoted family man. He was the proud father of Auvriel Greenlea, Alexis Greenlea, and TyJuan Greenlea, and was forever bonded to his brothers Aaron J. Greenlea, Robert J. Greenlea, and Shawn J. Greenlea. On July 23, 2005, he married Miriam Bethesda Allmond, with whom he built a life full of faith, laughter, and love. He also embraced his bonus son, Christopher Baker, and cherished his role as grandfather to Essence Reign Baker.

Todd was preceded in death by his parents, Rev. Aaron and Betty Jane Greenlea; his eldest brother, Marvin J. Greenlea (Jan); his beloved sister, Angela Denise Greenlea; mother-in-law, Beverly Clay; father-in-law, Sam H. Allmond; sisters-in-law, Cynthia Fowler and Diana "Leah" Allmond; nephew, Darnae Allmond; and great-nephew, Darnae Allmond Jr.

He leaves behind to honor and celebrate his memory: his loving wife, Miriam; daughters, Auvriel and Alexis; sons, TyJuan and Christopher; brothers, Aaron, Robert, and Shawn (Ketrell); granddaughter, Essence Reign; sisters-in-law, Natalie, Michelle, Candace (Byron), and Shantil (Michael); brothers-in-law, Michael, Arric, Vaughn (Dawn), and Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends who will continue to cherish his memory and carry forward his legacy of faith, laughter, and love.
