

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Leroy Dashawn Mautrice Bradford would like to thank everyone for your prayers, acts of kindness, and the support that was extended during this time. May God richly bless each of you for your love and support.

PALLBEARERS

Brothers and Nephews

FLORAL BEARERS

Cousins & Friends of the Family

JOB'S MORTUARY, INC.

Home of Distinctively Finer Funeral Service

Dr. Ralph W. Canty, Sr., Director

312 South Main Street, Sumter, SC 29150

803.773.3323

803.773.3324

jobsmortuary.net

Celebration of Life

LEROY DASHAWN MAUTRICE BRADFORD

APRIL 21, 2002 - AUGUST 24, 2026

Friday, September 4, 2026

2:00PM

SALEM CHAPEL & HERITAGE CENTER

101 S. Salem Avenue, Sumter SC 29150

Rev. Patricia Kirkland, Eulogist

Rev. David Quick, Officiant

ORDER OF SERVICE

Rev. David Quick, Officiating
Pastor of Line St. Church of God

Prelude Soft Music
Processional Clergy and Family
Opening Song I Won't Let You Fall
Scripture Readings Rev. Robbie Shortt

Pastor of Laurens Church of God

Old Testament Psalm 27:1-4

New Testament John 14:1-3

Prayer Minister

Selection You Are My Strength

Remarks:

Ann Williams (Cousin & Teacher)

Friends of the Family (2 people)

Quashaye Richardson & Siblings (Poem)

Acknowledgements Dr. Tammy Shortt

Solo Do It For Me Bro. Omarion J. Joe

Words of Comfort Rev. Patricia Kirkland (Aunt)

Pastor of Brockington St. Church of God

Recessional I'll Be Alright

Committal-Benediction-Interment

Joe's Cemetery

412 Church Camp, Bishopville SC 29010

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Leroy DaShawn Maurtrice Bradford, of Sumter, South Carolina, was born in Sumter, South Carolina, and passed away peacefully on August 24, 2026.

Leroy was a loving family man who was deeply devoted to his family, friends, and loved ones. He had a heart of gold and gave endlessly to the people he loved. There was very little he wouldn't do to help someone in need. His generosity, compassion, and willingness to be there for others were some of the qualities that made him so special.

Leroy was funny, energetic, and full of life. His presence could bring laughter and joy to those around him, and he had a way of creating memories that his family and friends will carry with them forever. Above all, Leroy was passionate about his family. He loved his children and loved ones deeply, and he showed that love through his actions, his kindness, and the countless ways he cared for those around him.

Leroy leaves behind a lifetime of loving and fond memories to be cherished by his mother and father, Connie and Leroy Bradford Sr.; his children, Kylie Bradford, age 4; Kaenaan Isaac, age 3; Kaioire Durham, age 3; and Kyrie Isaac Bradford, age 4 months; his sisters and brothers, Phashima Barber of Manning, SC, Quashaye Richardson of Columbia, SC, Whitney Richardson of Manning, SC, Antonio Richardson of Manning, SC, Antwain Richardson of Columbia, SC, and Alayhia Bradford of Columbia, SC; and his special friend, Natanya Isaac of Sumter, SC. Chadvis Reames and Billy "David" Rufus

He is also lovingly remembered by his great-grandmother, Elouise Joe of Camden, SC, and his grandmother, Willie Mae Bradford of Sumter, SC, along with many other relatives, friends, and loved ones who will forever cherish his memory.

Leroy was preceded in death by his brother, Little Leroy Bradford; his grandparents, Earl Joe, Lizzie Joe and Henry Bradford Sr.; his great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sigler; and his uncle, Earl Joe III.

Though Leroy's time with us was far too short, the love he gave, the laughter he shared, and the memories he created will remain in the hearts of everyone who knew him. His family will forever remember his loving spirit, his generous heart, his energy, and the way he would do whatever he could to help the people he loved.

Leroy's life was a blessing, his memory a treasure, and he will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

Rest peacefully, Leroy. Your love will live on through your children, your family, and everyone whose life you touched.