I am at peace, my soul is at rest.

There is no need for tears

For with your love

I was so blessed

For all those many years.

Obituary

Christine Mildred Cook peacefully departed this life on December 8, 2020. She was born in Anderson, South Carolina, to the late Reverend Henry Williford and Elizabeth Sanders Williford. Deaconess Cook was a long-time resident of Boston, Massachusetts, and took a job at the Copley Hotel, Boston after graduating from business school. Within one year of service, she was promoted to a management position.

In the spring of 1968, Deaconess Cook joined the Concord Baptist Church of Boston and served under the pastorate of Reverend Dr. Charles Adams. She was appointed to the Deaconess Board and also worked diligently with the Junior Deaconess Board, which was initiated under the leadership of Dr. Adams. In April 2004 Deaconess Cook received the honor of Deaconess Emeritus after Concord Baptist Church of Boston relocated to Milton, Massachusetts. She then joined Union Church, Boston, Massachusetts, where she was a member for eleven years under the pastorate of Reverend Dr. Jay Williams.

In 1977 she was united in holy matrimony to Mr. James Cook at the Concord Baptist Church of Boston by Dr. Adams.

She leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, great grandnieces, and great grandnephews from Georgia, Maryland, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, as well as devoted caretakers, friends, and church family from Boston and Pittsburgh.

Deaconess Cook leaves a message of encouragement for all who knew and loved her.

My life was worth living. Let my life speak for me. All I want in heaven is to hold His face. I am thankful for the tremendous life I have shared. I have finished my course. I have kept my faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a Crown of Righteousness, which my Lord shall give to me on that day.
