Geddes Alonza Blenman (Ralph)

Geddes Alonza Blenman, known by family and friends as Ralph, was born in Barbados, West Indies, on September 1, 1951, to the late Alonza and Doris Blenman of Drax Hall, St. George, Barbados.

Ralph was the third of five children born to the family: Marva, Vinno, Ralph, Maria, and Marcia. He attended St. Luke's Boys' School and Modern High School.

In 1972, Ralph joined his family in the United States. His first training program was at the Opportunity Industrialization Center in Roxbury, Massachusetts. He later worked at Honeywell Corporation in Dorchester and held various positions in the health care field. Ralph also worked for the Mass Turnpike Authority and Center for Development Opportunity, Inc.

Ralph enjoyed working with his hands, and nothing was ever too difficult for him to try. He was always there to help his family and friends, no matter the time, day or night. He never said no to anyone who asked for his help.

After a brief illness, Ralph leaves to cherish his memory his children, Michelle Evelyn Dixon and her husband, Miguel Dixon; Johnathan Barrow, and Tyrik Worrell; his grandson, Darnell Evelyn; his sisters, Marva Wilkinson, Maria Pompey and her husband, Conroy Pompey, and Marcia Evelyn and her husband, Gerald Evelyn.

He also leaves his nieces and nephew, Kamiah Pompey Williamson, Katrina Pompey, Karleita Pompey, Seddrick Evelyn, Meshon Evelyn, and Thyra Evelyn; his grandniecees and grandnephews, Kayla Pompey, Devin and Keira Williamson, Jacob, Joshua and Jace Pompey Laing, and Sophia Evelyn; along with many extended family members, cousins, and friends.

Ralph will be lovingly remembered and deeply missed.
