

A Life Well Lived

A quiet strength, a steady hand,
A life built firm on purpose and plan.
Through valleys low and mountains high,
He walked with faith, with head held high.

A soldier brave, who answered the call,
Who stood for duty, giving his all.
Through sacrifice and courage shown,
A legacy of honor was beautifully sewn.

A husband's love, both deep and true,
A guiding light in all he'd do.
A father's care, so strong, so wise,
Seen in the love within his children's eyes.

He found his peace by waters wide,
With fishing lines cast side by side.
In laughter shared and stories told,
Were treasures far greater than silver or gold.

And though his chair now sits at rest,
We know that God has called His best.
For lives like his don't fade away—
They shine in hearts from day to day.

So we will hold his memory near,
In every smile, in every tear.
For love like his will never end...
It lives on still—our father, husband, friend.

The Family's Message of Gratitude

The family of U.S. Veteran Charlie "Charles" Robinson extends our deepest and most sincere appreciation to each of you for your prayers, love, and unwavering support during this time of bereavement.

Every expression of kindness, whether through a comforting word, a call, a visit, a floral tribute, or simply your presence, has truly touched our hearts and strengthened us more than words can express. Your compassion has been a source of great comfort as we navigate this season of loss.

We are forever grateful for the love that has surrounded our family.
May God richly bless each of you is our continued prayer.

~ The Robinson Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.
