FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Family sincerely appreciates the many acts of kindness expressed during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers, personal visits, phone calls, food, cards, flowers, and for your presence here today. Because of all the love and support each of you have shared, our hearts have been made glad and we are sustained and strengthened by the scripture that assures us... 'Blessed are those that mourn; for they shall be comforted'.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way.

I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things we all shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you all the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with so much grief.

Lift up your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now; HE SET ME FREE!!!

Life Reflections

Jack Jermaine Anderson was born on March 20, 1980, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Jack Hollins Jr. and Carolyn Jane Anderson-Johnson.

Jack was educated and graduated from Metropolitan Advanced Technical High School as an honor roll student throughout his four years. He earned accreditations in engine rebuilding. Jack attended DeVry Institute, where he learned the skills of heating and cooling. He was an Alpha Omega role model for youth in his teenage years at St. Monica Private School. In 1992, Jack attended Kids Across America (KAA).

Jack accomplished working for himself and called his business "Jack of All Trades." He had other business goals in mind, such as starting a group home for high-functioning mentally disabled adults. In November 2024, after the passing of his grandmother, Florence Hayden, Jack professed his belief in Jesus Christ. Jack departed this life on March 13, 2025.

Jack's grandparents, Jack Hollins Sr., Frankie Mae Hollins, Willie Hayden Jr., and Florence Hayden; his parents, Jack Hollins Jr. and Carolyn Anderson-Johnson; and his brother, Maurice Jennings, preceded him in death.

Jack leaves to cherish his memory two brothers, Martino Jennings and Cornelius Lovelace of Kansas City, Missouri, and seven sisters: Tujauna Anderson-Ross of Atlanta, Georgia; Patrice Anderson-Hawkins (Chester) of Kansas City, Missouri; LaShawn Jennings of Kansas City, Missouri; Katin White of Kansas City, Kansas; Markesha Jennings of Kansas City, Missouri; Brittany Fossey of Kansas City, Missouri; and Jamie Anderson-Roland (Steve) of Raytown, Missouri. He is also survived by a multitude of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
