

Celebrating THE LIFE & LEGACY

Patricia Ann Mc Coggle, affectionately known as Trisha or Pat, passed away peacefully on February 3, 2026, in her beloved hometown of Plant City, Florida, at the age of 80. Born on April 14, 1945, Patricia was a radiant soul, whose life was marked not only by her nurturing spirit but also by her unwavering commitment to family and community.

Prior to her retirement, Patricia was a valued employee at Lykes Brothers, where she worked as a Packer. Yet, it was her innate caregiving nature that truly defined her legacy—she tended to countless elderly family members and friends with selfless love and compassion. A proud graduate of Marshall High School, Patricia carried a sense of dignity and class in everything she did, offering a glimpse of her beautiful soul to all who were fortunate enough to cross her path.

A talented poet and writer, Patricia expressed herself through the written word, capturing the beauty of the human experience. Her deep faith was evident in her service to her church community, where she fulfilled various roles, including proud membership on the Trustee board, a Missionary, and serving as a lead singer at Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church. Her love for God came to life in her dedication to church activities, where she nurtured others while herself serving in manifold capacities.

Patricia's captivating spirit extended beyond her public life; she embodied a personality that was nurturing, loving, and profoundly caring. There wasn't anyone she wouldn't help, and her generous heart was matched only by her keen sense of style. Always well-dressed, she carried herself with a poise that commanded admiration, earning respect from family, friends, and community members alike.

Among her most cherished accomplishments were her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren—an impressive testament to her enduring legacy. Patricia is survived by her children: Bridgette Honors, Timothy Glenn, Patrick Glenn, and Devan Broadnax (Robbin); her siblings: Theresa Walker (James), Shirley Taylor, Alfonso Brown, Carolyn Brown, Lenard Brown, Luthnia Gainer, Sally Mae Scott, and Frank McDonald; and an adoring host of grandchildren, including Devetrius Hardy, Marcus Glenn, Koriday Green, Devanshae Broadnax, TiShanbria Chisom (Christopher), Devanique Broadnax, Austin Bingham, Taylor Broadnax, Raeven Broadnax, Ashley Glenn, Gerrian Brown, Taelor Martin (Jay), Ethan Broadnax, and Hudson Broadnax. She is also holding dear her special sisters: Lois Guion (Rudolph), Sug Hawkins, Kay Cannon and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Patricia is predeceased by her parents, Theodrick Brown and Arrie Mae Boyd, as well as her siblings: Theodrick Brown Jr., Keith Bernard Brown, Berthnia Griffin, Judy McDonald, Leola McDonald, Clarence McDonald, Ernest McDonald, and David McDonald.

Patricia Ann Mc Coggle leaves behind a rich tapestry of memories woven through the hearts of those she loved and who loved her. A true matriarch, her spirit will forever resonate in the lives she touched.

ORDER OF Service

Officiant: Pastor Etta Owens

PROCESSIONAL
Clergy and Family

MUSICAL SELECTION
“Better Days”

PRAYER
Pastor Etta Owens

SCRIPTURE READINGS
Old Testament: Psalm 121:1-2
New Testament: Revelations

MUSICAL SELECTION
“I’m Still Holding On”

TRIBUTES OF REFLECTION
“Honoring Grandma”
Other’s 2 min. each

RESOLUTIONS
Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church Clerk

MUSICAL SELECTION
“Safe In His Arms”

WORDS OF COMFORT
Pastor Etta Owens

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS
Richard Funeral Services

RECESSIONAL
Clergy, Family and Friends

