

A Letter From Timothy

To my family, my friends, and every heart that loved me,

If you are reading this, I want you to pause for a moment and breathe. Feel the warmth of the memories we shared, the laughter we created, and the love that will forever bind us together. I need you to know — truly know — that your love shaped me, lifted me, and carried me farther than words can ever express.

I want you to remember me not for the weight I carried, but for the light we shared. Remember my smile, my curiosity, my dreams, and the quiet moments when we simply existed together in love. Those moments were real. They mattered. You mattered to me.

Please hold on to this truth: I loved you deeply. Every one of you. You were my safe places, my joy, my strength, and my reason to keep reaching for more. Nothing can take that away — not time, not distance, not even the mystery of life's hardest moments.

As you move forward, carry my memory with gentleness, not sorrow. Let my life remind you to love boldly, to forgive quickly, to check on one another, and to speak kindness even when the world feels heavy. Let my journey strengthen your own.

And when the days feel long and the nights feel quiet, I pray you feel God's arms around you — steadying you, comforting you, and reminding you that you are never alone. My love remains with you, woven into every heart I touched.

Live fully. Love deeply. Take care of one another. And know that I am resting in a place where the burdens are gone and only love remains.

*Forever in your hearts,
Timothy*

Life Story

A Time to Be Born

Timothy Philemon Herring entered this world on November 29, 2001, in Tallahassee, Florida, a precious gift to his loving parents, Robin Miller and Timothy L. Herring, Sr. From the very beginning, Timothy carried a gentle spirit, a bright mind, and a heart full of compassion—qualities that would shape his journey and touch every life connected to his own.

A Time to Believe

Timothy accepted Christ at an early age and united with God Church of Deliverance in Tallahassee, Florida. His faith grounded him, guided him, and remained a steady foundation throughout his life. He lived with a quiet strength and a sincere love for God that was reflected in his character, his kindness, and the way he treated others.

A Time for Education

Timothy was a proud product of Leon County Public Schools, completing his K–12 education with excellence. A distinguished scholar, he graduated from Godby High School in 2020 with Summa Cum Laude honors. His academic brilliance continued at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University (FAMU), where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Psychology, with a minor in Biology, again graduating Summa Cum Laude. Timothy's dedication to learning was unwavering—he pursued knowledge with purpose, curiosity, and a desire to help others.

A Time for Service and Work

Before beginning his professional journey at Florida A&M University, Timothy dedicated himself to serving children with special needs and disabilities through his work with Cayer Behavioral Group. In this role, he demonstrated remarkable patience, compassion, and a genuine commitment to helping young people reach their fullest potential. His ability to connect with others, encourage growth, and provide meaningful support reflected the caring spirit that would become a hallmark of his life.

Timothy's commitment to education and service continued at Florida A&M University, where he served as a Graduate Assistant in the Department of Psychology. There, he quickly earned the respect and admiration of faculty, staff, and fellow students through his professionalism, dependability, and positive attitude. His strong work ethic, leadership abilities, and dedication to excellence led to his promotion as an OPS Staff Assistant within the department. Whether assisting students, supporting departmental initiatives, or carrying out his daily responsibilities, Timothy approached every task with integrity, humility, and a sincere desire to uplift those around him. His contributions left a lasting impression, and his legacy of service, kindness, and dedication will long be remembered by all who had the privilege of working alongside him.

A Time to Mourn

Timothy leaves behind a legacy of love, brilliance, and kindness. He will be forever cherished by his devoted mother, Robin Miller of Tallahassee, Florida; his father, Timothy L. (KaShauna) Herring, Sr. of Tallahassee, Florida; and his siblings: Monica Porter of Bainbridge, Georgia; Shamira (Xavier) Eustay of Fayetteville, North Carolina; Timothy Herring, Jr. (Takelia) of Marianna, Florida; Kendrick Herring; and Isaiah (Leah) Herring of Tallahassee, Florida.

Timothy was a loving and protective big brother to Maiya, Dwaron, AnJaiya, Amelia, Dominic, Demetre, and Nyra. He also leaves his grandparents, Jazzie and Doug Whitaker of Tallahassee, Florida, and grandmother Gracie Bostic of Havana, Florida.

He will be lovingly remembered by his nieces Anndrea, Arianna, Alexis, Anaesha, and Aaliyah, and his nephews Antonio and Ariyone. His memory will also be cherished by his aunt Patricia Herring, his godmother Verna Paul, and his uncles Douglas Whitaker (Kenisha), Alfred Bostic, Ronnie James, Anthony Simmons (Selena), Dr. Gregory D. Bostic, Tony Herring (Erica), Maurice Herring, and Gary Jones, along with a host of devoted aunties, uncles, cousins, and friends who were blessed by his presence.

A Time to Remember

Timothy was preceded in death by his grandparents Bobby Miller, Horace Bostic, Doris Herring, and Gladys Herring.

Though Timothy's earthly journey ended far too soon, the love he shared, the brilliance he displayed, and the lives he touched will continue to shine brightly. His legacy is one of excellence, faith, compassion, and purpose. Those who knew him will forever carry his memory in their hearts.
