HIS Life Story

Clyde "PeeWee" Jacobs was born December 19, 1941, in Mansura, LA to the late Forest Marsalose Jacobs and Blanche Demouy Jacobs.

Clyde received his formal education at Mary McLeod Bethune High School in Marksville, LA where he was a proud graduate of the Class of 1961. Following graduation, Clyde moved to Houston, TX and joined the workforce as a pharmacy technician for a year before he decided to come back closer to home. He relocated to New Orleans, LA making it home and began working with Olin Craft as a printer where he remained until his retirement after 30+ years of dedicated employment. Following retirement, Clyde decided to lay roots in Ocean Springs, MS for roughly 12 years. He then returned home to Mansura, LA where he continued to enjoy life for 10 wonderful years.

Clyde was a dedicated parishioner of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church from the time of his return until his passing.

Clyde was preceded in death by his parents, Forest Marsalose Jacobs and Blanche Demouy Jacobs, one brother, Terry Raphael Jacobs and one sister, Joanna Jacobs Ratleff.

Sharing his beautiful memories are his dedicated nieces: Johanna Jacobs Wesley (Willie) and Arlene Leviege (John), a dedicated nephew Roland Mullin, Jr. (Elizabeth), and a host of other relatives and friends.

Recessional

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith.
II Timothy 4:7

To My Uncle in Heaven

Although you sleep in heaven now
You're not that far away
My heart is full of memories
And you're with me every day
You lived your life with meaning
And with a smile upon your face
A world that was full of happiness
Is now an empty place

Love Noonie

People say that only time
Will heal a broken heart
But just like me and you
It has been torn apart
I know you are at peace now
And in a place where you are free
Meet me at the Pearly Gates
When Heaven calls for me
