“ He Will Call”

Song lyrics

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away. Replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made: (CHORUS) He will call: The dead will answer. They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay, From death he will awaken. Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally. (CHORUS) He will call: The dead will answer.

They will live at his command. For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

Poem from Baby Dion

Greatest love I've ever known. Nurturing, forgiving and loyal. I'm me because of you. Perfect no longer exists now that you're gone. Everything about you will keep me strong. No matter what life brings or how it goes on there will always be a little boy in me wishing to hear you say baby Dion. Every one who knows me know of you because when I'm asked "who you think you are" I say Mrs Ida's grandson.
