

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain,
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.

"To My Husband"

Charles, it's Tammy. Let me start by saying how I love and miss you so much. I'm sitting here writing to you with tears streaming down my face. I can't believe I won't be seeing, kissing, and hugging you again.

Charles, we've been together since we were 14 years old. God made you for me and me for you. You were the best husband, father, grandfather, and friend to everyone that you knew. It was so hard for me to let you go. Hold my spot for me until we see each other again. I love you, baby.

Forever your wife,

Tammy.

Remember Me

Remember me with smiles not tears,
For all the joy through all the years.
Recall the closeness that was ours,
A love as "sweet" as fragrant flowers.
Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain,
We'll see each other once again.
I am at peace...try to believe,
It was my time...I had to leave.
But "what a view", I have from here,
I see your face, I feel you near,
I follow you throughout the day,
You're not alone along the way.
And when god calls you...you will be ,
Right by my side...right here with me.
Till then, I'll wait by heaven's door,
We'll be united...evermore!

Obituary

Charles "CT" Thompson was born on October 4, 1970, to Diane (Curtis) Hargrove and Charles Norris. Charles, known to most as CT, was confirmed and baptized at Southern Baptist Church in downtown Cincinnati. As a child, Charles loved taking things apart to see how they worked – from toasters to TVs. Diane and Curtis knew they had a future mechanic on their hands.

At the sweet age of 14, Charles met his wife and soulmate, Tammy (Dudley) Thompson, whom he later married on October 31, 1995. Through the ups and downs, their love and devotion to each other were undeniable. Charles always wanted to work for himself, so he did just that – beginning his career in mechanics and selling the cars he repaired. He also loved to cook and had a special recipe for BBQ sauce that he wouldn't give up... no matter who you were or how many times you asked!

He was very involved in every family function – so much so that he and Tammy even made the shirts. His favorite reminder to everyone was: "Family is all we got!"

Charles Thompson departed this life on Friday, May 16, 2025. He was preceded in death by his mother, Diane Hargrove, and his father, Curtis Hargrove.

Charles leaves behind his loving wife, Tammy, and five wonderful children: Charles (Chuck), Jessica, Christopher, Chace, and Summer. He is also survived by nine beautiful grandchildren: Kwa'Myah (Tokyo), Jessrelle, London, James (Trey), Paris, China, British, Autumn, and Chastiny. Additionally, he leaves behind one brother, Curtis, and one sister, Carlotta.

Charles will truly be missed but will forever remain in our hearts.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
